DECLARANT'S BACKGROUND INFORMATION

EOD: 2/28/2012

DECLARANT'S STATEMENT

I entered on duty with the FBI on February 28, 2012 as an Operational Support Technician (OST). In May 2014, I was promoted to the position of Financial Operations Specialist (FOS) where I am still assigned. On or around late August/early September 2015, I became the Acting Auditor (Previous Auditor and position was at the GS-12 paygrade), although I was an FOS GS-11 within the Dallas Field Office after executive management requested that I fill this position on a temporary detail.

However, on or about March 4, 2016, nearly six months after having filled the position as Acting Auditor, it was alleged by FBI HRD that after I applied for the permanent Auditor GS-12 position, that I did not meet the "education" qualification for the position. In addition, to serve as Acting Auditor, one must possess the same requisite education as those seeking to permanently fill the position. To resolve this matter, I took steps to have this decision reviewed and overturned. I presented materials necessary to verify that I met the qualifications for the position per the OPM guidelines directly to FBI Human Resources Headquarters(HRD). I Provided my course work and syllabi detailing accounting course work but this attempt did not resolve the issue. Subsequently, I sent Niambi R. M. Tillman, Assistant Special Agent in Charge (ASAC), Operational Support Branch - Dallas Division, detailed course descriptions for my accounting classes. ASAC Tillman enlisted the help of EAP Representative, Kevin Unruh who helped me assemble a complete "accounting-education" portfolio. ASAC Tillman agreed that the materials showed I met the minimum qualifications. The course descriptions clearly showed that, although not all my classes were titled as accounting courses, given I was a business major, my course syllabi illustrate(s) that they were fundamental and advanced accounting classes. However, the HRD Unit Chief decided (March 22, 2016) my courses did not satisfy the requirements. Finally, I scheduled a meeting with DL Special Agent in Charge (SAC) Thomas Class, as the Auditor reports directly to him. I provided him a package (March 27, 2016) that detailed my accounting course work, supported by my transcripts/syllabus. A few days later I submitted SAC Class the OPM FAQ which read in part: "If the content of a course arguably fits within the general subject area represented by one of the fields, it should qualify toward the 24-hour requirement." Approximately three weeks later, although SAC Class stated, that he had not forgotten about our meeting; without meeting with me or being given a final determination, on April 14, 2016, he authorized the Auditor position be reposted to a lower grade and pay, GS 9/11.

I did not apply to this new posting. On April 26, 2016, I met with ASAC Tillman. She stated she was disappointed that I did not apply for the Auditor GS 9/11 position and asked why. I told her that the education requirement was the same, if, as they allege, I did not qualify for the original posting I would not qualify for the lower grade(s). On April 28, 2016, ASAC Tillman stated that executive management wanted me to continue to do the work of the Auditor. I worked as the A/Auditor for another two weeks or so but ultimately; I informed her that did not make sense and was contrary to regulation, if, as they alleged, I did not have the education to be hired for the position, then I could not continue to serve as Acting Auditor.

After careful consideration, I contacted the FBI EEO, whereby April 29, 2016 was given as the EEOC initial contact date. I had my phone conference and submitted my chronology of events to the EEO counselor. On May 10, 2016, I met with ASAC Tillman who stated that she had been scheduled for an EEO interview. I have been out of the office on Sick Leave (SL), Annual Leave (AL), and on Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA) leave intermittently, since May 2016 for the physical and emotional effects that work-related stress was having on my body, specifically, swelling, tenderness, and agitation to my lower back at my surgical site in my lower-back for multi-level spinal fusion, to include anxiety. Exhibit (6)

With respect to allegation "1", on or about May 10, 2016, I returned to my position as an FOS. On May 11, 2016, I met with my supervisor, Financial Manager (FM) Sandra Hollingshead, who stated that I would be her back up. But, FM Hollingshead also instructed me to move out of the office used by the previous backup, (which was also my office prior to accepting the position as Acting Auditor), and reassigned me to a cubicle that was partially blocked by the main entry door. This action was to turn my previous work space to a conference room by placing a conference table in my previous work space the day she was given notice of my return to the Finance Office. I was out of the finance office for six months. Why was the decision made to turn my previous workspace into a conference room the day before my return to the finance office? This action contradicts her assertion that I was moved for business reasons. Due to the stress and the physical pain this conflict was causing to my prior back injuries, I took Annual/Sick leave from May 11 to June 13, 2016.

With respect to allegation "2", when I returned to the office on June 13, 2016, I was unable to gain access to my office building because my badge and code would not open the gate. Nor would the security guard allow me entry by reviewing my FBI credentials as they have always done in the past. The guard stated, that he needed to contact someone in the security office to escort me into the building. This action disappointed me and caused emotional anguish given before I filled an EEO complaint I was considered an exemplary employee, so I extended my medical leave to June 27, 2016. When I returned to work (Finance Office) on June 27, 2016, the desk I was instructed to use was not operational. I did not have a telephone jack and, I did not have access to the low side terminal (Computer was not setup) and management had seemingly deactivated my access to the financial systems which were essential tools in my role as an FOS. The mere fact that my work station was not work ready contradicts the assertion that my assignment to the new cubicle was for business reasons.

With respect to allegation "3", on June 27, 2016, I returned to the office and subsequently called into a meeting with SAC Class and ASAC Tillman, in which SAC Class informed me that he had directed ASAC Tillman to deactivate my badge (Multiple times) while I was out on leave to protect the other employees from me. SAC Class stated that I was unpredictable and insinuated that I was a threat. He said, "It is my job to protect Dallas bureau employees." on June 15, 2016, ASAC Tillman lied to me concerning my badge and code not working upon entry. Exhibit (7) She stated that it was a technical glitch, and she was unsure as to why the security guard would not allow unassisted entry but my badge had been reset and would work upon my return. During the meeting, SAC Class could not identify any actions by me which were threatening. He simply referred to me having firearms in my car. Executive staff/Security CSO was aware that I frequently brought firearms to work (trunk) and most times I parked outside of bureau property (Even though Dallas CDC said I could still park inside). Additionally, I am licensed to carry firearm(s) and the agency is aware that I started work on an outside business training people on personal firearm safety and protection. Prior to operating this business, I submitted the proper paperwork to the Agency requesting permission (Documentation Approved) to operate an outside business. While I was out of the office on leave, I received a call from ASAC Tillman informing me that it had been alleged that while in the office I used the "n" word (racial, derogatory word), which I denied but was never brought up in the June 27th meeting with SAC Class and ASAC Tillman. On July 6, 2016, I received an email from Acting Assistant Special Agent in Charge (A/ASAC) Jeff Rutherford advising me that my building access was being suspended for a second time. He informed me via email that the new suspension was for the period that my doctor's excuse stated I was out on medical leave. Exhibit (8)

With respect to allegation "4", On June 29, 2016, I was called into ASAC Tillman's office along with FM Hollingshead. I was counseled on working with my supervisor (ASAC Tillman was aware of my concerns that the FM was not responding for some time to emails, phone calls or text messages) and calling in to inform her when I would be 15 minutes late. Additionally, I was informed that I could not flex, and if I was more than 5 minutes late they would deduct my leave from WebTA. This was the first time in my four years with the Agency that I was counseled on time. Prior to filing the EEOC claim I was informed that my time was not questioned due to the number of additional hours I worked and I could flex my time whenever I needed. It was said by my supervisor and executive management that I was a responsible and always accountable for my time. My supervisor was aware of my OWCP Accepted back injury, Disabled Veteran status and my ailing mother. I had been allowed to flex my time, as I worked more than 40-hour work weeks, often working 50+ hours a week and did not request credit time. Exhibit (9)

With respect to allegation "5", my medical condition(s) have still not improved, which has resulted in the need for more medical leave. In response, the FBI has attempted to deny my leave by stating that my requests were unacceptable, continuously requesting/requiring additional medical documentation, placing me on AWOL status, and providing me with inaccurate information for processing my OWCP medical leave requests. On July 11, 2016, although I had leave until July 14, 2016, I was contacted by FM Hollingshead who informed me that I had 15 days to present the documentation for FMLA. When I presented the medical documentation that I had presented in the past, I was informed it was unacceptable. On July 25, 2016, ASAC Tillman stated that the FMLA paperwork previously submitted had been approved from July 1 to July 22, 2016. As of July 25, 2016, I was again being placed on AWOL status. On July 28, 2016, I received an email from ASAC Tillman stating that my FMLA was accepted for July 25 and 26, 2016, and starting July 27, 2016, I was being placed back into an AWOL status. Disabled Veterans cannot be placed in AWOL status while in doctor's care. Exhibit (9,10)

With respect to allegation "6", on July 14, 2016, I sent an email to my supervisor Hollingshead stating that I was invoking FMLA for my absences. I also informed her that I was waiting for OWCP to assign a doctor. On July 15, 2016, FM Hollingshead responded, stating that my request for FMLA was not supported by appropriate medical documentation and as of July 14, 2016 I had 15 days to submit the necessary documentation. On July 15, 2016, I submitted FMLA paperwork by email to Hollingshead, ASAC Tillman, SAC Class, which had been completed by my primary physician Dr. Simmons. Hollingshead informed me that the FMLA paperwork was found to be insufficient and was therefore denied. Disabled Veterans cannot be placed in AWOL status while under doctor's care. Exhibit (10)

Archie Butler

Plaintiff- Archie Butler was hired by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), Dallas, TX FBI Field Office on February 28, 2012, as an Operational Support Technician (OST) GS-8. Plaintiff remained an OST until he was promoted to Financial Operational Specialist (FOS) GS-9, in May 2014. Plaintiff was again promoted to FOS GS-11, in August 2015.

While serving as an FOS, In September 2015, Plaintiff was told he would be detailed to serve as the Acting Auditor- Dallas FBI Field Office to replace the former Auditor who was promoted to a position in FBI Headquarters, Washington DC., Plaintiff agreed to the detail as he had demonstrated his willingness on countless occasions to be a team player. Which is reflected in his numerous Awards and Promotions for dedicated service to the FBI.

After serving in the role of Auditor for approximately five months, the FBI Dallas Auditor position became available as a permanent position (GS-12), as it was an open position given the Plaintiff was detailed to the position temporarily. The Plaintiff applied for the position of permanent Auditor Dallas FBI in February 2016.

On or about sometime early March 2016, the plaintiff received a notice concerning his application for the Auditor position from the FBI HQ Applicant Division. The email read, the plaintiff did not possess the necessary Accounting credits (24 hours) from an accredited University that would certify him for the position of FBI Auditor.

The Plaintiff who holds a Master's degree in Business was sure the FBI HQ Applicant Unit employees simply made a mistake, so he again sent his undergrad and graduate school transcripts which detailed that he met the education "24 hours of Accounting" requirement for the Auditor position. The Plaintiff was again told that he did not meet the requirements so he asked his undergrad and graduate schools to certify in writing that he possessed 24 hours of accounting as he matriculated through their institutions.

Both Grantham University (Undergrad) and Southern Illinois University (Graduate) Business school department heads, wrote letters certifying the Plaintiff's education credentials and that he indeed possessed 24 hours of accounting between the two degrees.

The Plaintiff sent the newly acquired letters and his transcripts to the FBI HQ Applicant Unit and was told that his credit hours could not be counted as they were labeled BA and MBA as Plaintiff was a Business major. The Supervisor of the FBI HQ Applicant Unit-J. Estok (Defendant No. 5) wrote on March 22, 2016 that the Plaintiff's "Accounting" credentials were not satisfactory. According to Unit Chief J. Estok, the plaintiff's "accounting courses did not even warrant the school category of accounting because the class prefix was BA and MBA. Although the classes clearly demonstrate accountancy in their course description and title, UC J. Estok denied they were accounting classes.

Plaintiff informed the Dallas FBI management team that he would need to step down as Acting Auditor as he was found not qualified for the position. The qualifications for the permanent position of Auditor are the same within a detail assignment to Auditor so the completed audits would need to be verified by someone who was a certified FBI Auditor. Therefore, the plaintiff stepped down from the position of acting Auditor and reported to the Finance office in April 2016.

Plaintiff again asked why his education credentials were not certified given the Office of Personnel Management's (OPM) guidance on the matter stated that education certification could only be determined by the course curriculum and not its labeling or title. I presented this fact given me by email from OPM to no avail.

Plaintiff filed a grievance for racial discrimination in an employment matter given FBI HQ Applicant Unit UC J. Estok, would not certify his education credentials that clearly stated by course curriculum, title and letters from business school institutional scholars that plaintiff had acquired the necessary accounting education. Plaintiff also filed a grievance given UC J. Estok wrote in her March 22, 2016 email that course category is the recognized standard to certify education credentials within the federal government which is not consistent with governmental policy.

In Summary Judgement, dated June 11, 2019, the AJ did not address the in excess of 45 day rule FBI EEOC officials state was their reasoning for not including Non-Certification of education credentials as an accepted claim. Time should have been tolled from the date UC J. Estok wrote her email dated March 22, 2016. Plaintiff filed a grievance dated April 28, 2016, therefore this specific claim should not have been dismissed as untimely as it fell within the 45 day time allowed.

DECLARANT'S BACKGROUND INFORMATION

Name: Archie Butler

Disability: Yes

EOD: February 28, 2012

DECLARANT'S STATEMENT

On February 28, 2012, I entered on duty with the FBI as an Operational Support Technician (OST) in the Dallas Division. In April 2014, I received a promotion and began serving as a Financial Operations Specialist (FOS). My duties included the daily financial operations in the Dallas Division. It is my understanding, that Supervisory Financial Operations Specialist (SFOS) Sandra Hollingshead served as my Supervisor and rating official from 2014 through March 2018 and Assistant Special Agent in Charge (ASAC) Niambi Tillman served as my reviewing official from 2014 until March 2018.

I applied for the (FOS) position in 2011. I hand delivered my Veterans Administration (VA) and Office of Workman's Compensation (OWCP) benefits documentation as was requested by Dallas FBI officials. These documents gave Dallas Division FBI access to my (VA) and OWCP File. As a disabled veteran, I am directed by Executive Order 5396, to provide all medical evidence of my injuries that may prevent me from performing my assigned duties. I continued to do so until my employment with the FBI was terminated.

Affiant's Initials AB.

I am also covered under the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act (USERRA), Title I of the American with Disabilities Act, (ADA) Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) - Disabled Veterans Commission and the Department of Labor (DOL/OWCP).

The VA has compensated me monthly for my service connected injuries since my honorable discharge in November 1988. In addition, The FBI's website speaks to every protection noted above to include other disabled persons and veteran protections.

In April 2016, I filed an Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) complaint based on my race, resulting in Special Agent in Charge (SAC) Thomas Class, ASAC Tillman, SFOS Hollingshead and SSA Jeff Rutherford, submitting to interviews as some of the Responsible Management Officials (RMO).

History of Injury

In 1987, I began serving in the U.S. Army Reserve/National Guard. During my active service in the Army (1992-1998), I incurred several injuries, which resulted in five surgeries for right Inguinal Nerve Repair, Loss of Creative Organ. In November 1998, I was honorably discharged due to disability from the US Army -SGT/E5. I joined the U.S. Postal Service (USPS) in December 2000, and while serving in the U.S.P.S., in 2003, I was diagnosed with multiple Disc Herniations (L4/L5-S1) and reaggravation-worsening of right Inguinal Nerve Entrapment within the right Inguinal area by doctors within the VA, resulting in a sixth right Inguinal surgery. In 2006, I underwent my seventh surgery, a Disc Discectomy to correct the "Disc Herniations" which caused lower spine damage and pain. In 2007, I had my eighth surgery which was a multi-level Spinal Fusion w/Titanium Instrumentation (L4/L5-S1). In October 2010, I was declared 40% disabled by the VA. On July 31, 2003, my inguinal nerve damage and related spine injuries were accepted by The Office of Workman's Compensation (OWCP) as reaggravations to my service connected Army injuries.

Throughout my government career, I have suffered with excruciating pain. Unfortunately, as of late 2015 I developed additional difficulties performing tasks and staying focused due to pain in my lower spine, legs, and feet to include my lower extremities going numb. The excruciating pain causes me to suffer mentally with depression, anxiety and insomnia. Most recently, On June 4, 2018, I was given a course of steroid injection(s) for pain and numbness at the VA hospital in Dallas, TX. This was prescribed and performed given my responsiveness to pain, along with results from an MRI performed in April 2017. The MRI revealed that I have new herniations at L3/L4, L2, which are a direct result of the spinal fusion hardware (according to physicians), particularly the right-side perpendicular screws will make future injections difficult. The screws and related nerves are covered in scar tissue, which makes needle insertion difficult (according to VA physicians). Stress and physical activity worsen my symptoms. Before the injury worsened, the ability to work gave me temporary relief, but I have always suffered with excruciating pain. I have taken physician prescribed narcotics for the last 20 years or so to give partial relief of my symptoms. The pain causes my blood pressure to rise, so I was prescribed medicine for high blood pressure. Additionally, I take a prescription for anxiety. I also use a portable tense unit (provided by the VA) and a stationary tense unit (provided by OWCP) to increase blood circulation in the affected area. Presently, all injury care and medication are prescribed by my primary VA Physician.

With respect to accepted ~~issue~~ "1" in April, May and June 2016, I began to intermittently take annual leave (AL) and sick leave (SL) to address injury stressors, pain in my lower spine and right - side inguinal area. According to FBI officials, on July 11, 2016, I had exhausted all my annual leave (AL) and sick leave (SL).

I always inform FBI management of the status of my injuries, so If I was going to be late for work or needed to take leave; I would contact management by email, text message or phone call. On July 6, 2016, I was advised by SAS Nicole Wynne, FBI Dallas Applicant Unit that my leave would soon be exhausted, and she asked me what I wanted to do when I exhausted my leave. I asked her to place me on leave without pay (LWOP), due to my disabled veteran status and my being out due to my service connected and OWCP accepted injuries. On July 11, 2016, I was told that I would be placed on AWOL by my supervisor Sandra Hollingshead, unless I requested and was approved for Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA). Therefore, I submitted paperwork to take LWOP leave under FMLA to continue treatment for my disabilities and to resolve any confusion over my injury state. My disabled veteran status, and OWCP status had been provided to Dallas FBI officials but the July 11, 2016 letter does not speak to any of my documented veteran protections. My doctors clearly stated what my injuries are, which correspond with my veteran and OWCP injuries.

My leave under FMLA was approved by FBI HQ Nurse Wendy Madison and this approval began on July 1, 2016. I was then contacted by ASAC Tillman who confirmed my FMLA approval, and she informed me that my AWOL status would be converted to LWOP. I remained (Off Work) under doctor's care and I was declared 100% unemployable, permanent and totally disabled on December 7, 2017 by the VA. Since the aggravation/worsening of my injuries, I never returned to work at FBI Dallas Division. I was disappointed to learn that I had to apply for leave under FMLA, when I should have remained on LWOP, but my doctors agreed to give anything that was needed to further the care I needed.

Due to my disabling aggravated military injuries, I had an open claim under the Office of Worker's Compensation Program (OWCP) since 2003, when I resided in Chicago, IL. I was waiting for OWCP to approve me to see a doctor in Dallas, TX (OWCP case transferred 2010) because I was formerly seeing doctors in Chicago, IL and had never seen an OWCP approved doctor in the Dallas, TX area. Given the cost associated with my injuries and the need for diagnostic testing, I awaited approval for additional medical treatment resources from OWCP. Additionally, I never discontinued treatment under the VA system, or through my wife's private insurance carrier.

On November 27, 2017, I received a call from Administrative Officer (AO) Greg Jones. AO Jones told me that I ~~could~~ no longer take leave under OWCP and I had to report to work on December 11, 2017, or I would be placed on Absent Without Leave (AWOL) status. I informed AO Jones that I was confused as to why he was calling me because I was protected under Executive Order 5396 and OWCP. I advised AO Jones that I was not able to work, due to the worsening of my service connected injuries from the military and I provided him with additional (Off Work) medical documentation. AO Jones told me he would send me an official letter regarding our communication. I never received the letter memorializing our conversation. I sent an email to AO Jones memorializing our communication. AO Jones did not respond to me until January 11, 2018.

On January 11, 2018, AO Jones sent me an email advising me that I had been placed on AWOL due to my excessive and unexcused absences. January 12, and on January 25, 2018, I sent additional medical documentation to support my disability to AO Jones via email and he replied by thanking me for the medical documentation. I was under the impression ~~that~~ everything was okay, and that AO Jones now understood and was now in line with the regulation. Therefore, I believed I was still being afforded LWOP. All through this process I continued to provide medical documentation to HRD and FBI Dallas Division.

On March 2, 2018, I logged onto the National Financial Center and reviewed my Employee Personal Page and was shocked to learn that I had been placed on AWOL.

According to Executive Order 5396, whenever a disabled veteran is being treated for injuries, they are granted LWOP. Additionally, under the Executive Order LWOP is to be granted to disabled veterans, and to my knowledge, there are no stated time limits. I was discriminated against when I was placed on AWOL as a disabled veteran. I did what I was required to do by proving I have a disability (providing the necessary medical documentation by duly appointed medical professionals), which is the reason that I was unable to return to work.

With respect to accepted issue "2" on September 2017, I sent an email to Unit Chief (UC) Michael Huff and his staff in HRD advising them that according to the VA, my disability rating was adjusted upwardly from 40% disabled to 80% disabled on September 29, 2017. On September 28, 2017, UC Huff sent an email asking if OWCP had awarded me total disability. Given my new VA rating, and my suffering from excruciating pain for so long, I realized I could no longer work and decided to seek VA 100% unemployability, based on my medical disability. The VA requested by mail, that FBI officials complete Form 21-4192 to verify that I was employed with the FBI. At the time, I believed, the form was essential for me to receive additional disability benefits. This form was sent by me to various FBI officials including those previously mentioned. The VA sent the form to FBI Dallas officials. I, nor the VA, ever received a positive response, or form completion by FBI officials. The VA 21-4192 form completion request was either ignored or I was told that another department was responsible for its completion. Form 21-4192 was never completed by FBI officials.

I followed Executive Order 5963 which states that I must provide my employer with medical documentation to support my service off work/disability status and the FBI failed to follow policy by placing me on AWOL. The FBI failed to complete the VA request to verify my application for VA disability benefits.

In addition to receiving a rating of VA 100% unemployability, effective December 7, 2017, I sought to retire from federal service (FBI) in May 2018 (I learned of the 100% rating on April 23, 2018). So, I sent a truncated version of my medical documentation, 100% VA rating, and Office of Personnel Management (OPM) disability request -SF 3112a to Yvette Cephas (FBI HRD Retirements Section). I was told that my retirement paperwork was being processed. On August 1, 2018, I received a response from UC Huff stating that because I was separated from the FBI on May 3, 2018, the FBI is unable to process paperwork I submitted in June 2018 for an Office of Personnel Management (OPM) disability retirement and I should contact OPM and file a form 3107 directly with OPM.

With respect to accepted issue "3," on March 7, 2018, I met with an FBI Special Agent at a local Starbucks and was presented with a letter from Acting Section Chief a/SC) Keri Vislocky.

The letter from A/SC Vislocky advised me that I was proposed for removal for failing to report to work from July 11, 2016 through July 13, 2016, and that I failed to properly request leave. That I failed to report to work from November 27, 2017 through February 2, 2018, amounting to over 400 hours, when my leave was denied, and I failed to follow leave procedures. Removing me from the Federal Service/FBI for failing to request leave properly is not a relevant statute. As I stated earlier, I was approved for FMLA from July 1, 2016 through September 5, 2016. From September 5, 2016 through December 10, 2016, I was placed on LWOP and beginning December 11, 2016, I was placed on AWOL. But, I was rated 100% unemployable on December 7, 2017.

The letter from A/SC Vislocky stated to contact Human Resource Specialist (HRS) Katherine Brideau, if I wanted to appeal the decision for my removal. It did not make sense to me when the end of the letter states that I may be a preference eligible employee "disabled veteran" when all along I have been submitting medical documentation proving that I am a disabled veteran. There is no leave policy guidance or regulation stated anywhere within the March 7, 2018 Proposed to Remove letter.

Nevertheless, I appealed my "Proposed Removal Letter" from the FBI within the allotted time frame for rebuttal and forwarded it to Katherine Brideau (The same truncated medical sent to VA and OPM). In April 2018, I was contacted telephonically by the same FBI agent I met with at Starbucks and I was informed that my appeal had been denied. The agent asked to meet with me in April 2018 to sign refused to meet with the agent or to sign the removal paperwork due to a/SC Vislocky's March 2018 letter that did not contain any statutes or regulations to justify my removal from FBI rolls.

A/SC Vislocky's Proposed my Removal for AWOL although I was a disabled veteran. The FBI was provided my VA medical status from the beginning of my FBI employment (employment requirement). I was officially separated from the FBI on May 3, 2018. Signing a removal letter or signing for a removal letter by mail that states I am being removed from federal service for AWOL is not legal based on Executive Order 5396, given I was approved for leave under FMLA, and subsequently medically retired through the VA adjudication process, which negates and suspends the need for removal. The VA 100% unemployability letter was given 10 days before (April 23, 2018) the May 3, 2018 removal/separation date.

August 2018, I received my final FBI Form 50, which states that I am a disabled veteran, nonetheless I was removed/separated for unexcused absences.

This entire process has been exhaustive. I served in the military, Active/Reserve for 11 years and like many soldiers I received an honorable discharge and unfortunately left with a broken body. I went on to serve the United States Postal Service for 11 years, and then went on to attain a master's degree, two promotions and several awards within my six-year FBI career. Although I was not granted the FBI job I originally applied and interviewed for (FOS), and subsequently hired at a lesser pay grade and title (OST). I, nevertheless worked tirelessly and faithfully for the FBI. I was asked to become the FBI Dallas Division a/Auditor which exposed me to different challenges. I worked as an FBI Auditor for approximately seven months. Despite the pain I was in, I worked many hours past my eight-hour work day and even on weekends, to learn and effectively manage the position. My continued efforts paid off, as I have received numerous awards to include a Directors Award during my service with the FBI.

I have been awarded these accomplishments while experiencing excruciating pain, sometimes dealing with numbness throughout my entire lower extremities. GOD knows, I gave all I had to the FBI and I have no regrets. All I want is to have this matter settled.

As of April 23, 2018, I was awarded a 90% disabled rating and 100% unemployable, Permanent and Total veteran status. I went through OPM for immediate retirement.

The corrective action I seek to resolve this complaint is:

1. My Notification of Personnel Action (Form 50) reflect that I medically retired from the FBI instead of removal/separated.
2. An official email sent to all FBI Dallas Division employees, that states, I Archie Butler can enter FBI premises as I would like to visit close friends at some point (future retirements/employee awards/accomplishments).
3. I request FBI retired credentials once my OPM retirement date is confirmed as I am retiring due to VA/service and OWCP accepted medical condition(s).

4. Official documented training for all FBI employees regarding the treatment of disabled persons to include rights and responsibilities of both the disabled and FBI personnel.
5. Given FBI officials would not acknowledge my VA accepted injuries and therefore, did not complete the necessary VA employment form 21-4192; I request
 - Compensatory damages in the amount of $6,735. Which is three months of VA 100% pay that was hindered and or delayed from September 2018 through November 2018.
 - Compensatory damages in the amount of $13,000.00 for treatment of anxiety and depression.
 - Punitive damages in the amount of $154,000, which is GS-11 pay for 25 months of undue hardship and stress given what I believe was an intentional attempt to undermine the ADA, and my protected Veteran status by wrongful termination.

I do not have knowledge of any additional information I believe is relevant to the scope of this inquiry, as SSA Hill described it to me. I have read this statement, consisting of fourteen (14) pages. The entire statement is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and belief.

[REDACTED], former Special Agent in Charge (SAC), Dallas Division (DL), Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), do hereby solemnly swear to the following:

I have been advised by Supervisory Special Agent (SSA) Eric J. Croyle, Office of Equal Employment Opportunity Affairs (OEEOA), FBI, that he is investigating a complaint of employment discrimination (FBI-2016-00183) pursuant to Title 29 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Part 1614.

I understand the complainant is Archie Butler, Financial Operations Specialist (FOS), assigned to the Finance Office (FO), DL, FBI, and I have been identified as an individual who may possess information relevant to this matter. I understand that the issues accepted for investigation are:

Whether complainant was subjected to reprisal for prior EEO activity when:

- 1) On May 11, 2016, he was moved from an office to a cubicle;
- 2) On June 27, 2016, following a six-week absence, he discovered his desk did not have a telephone jack, he did not have access to the "low side terminal," and management had deactivated his access to financial systems;

- 5) On June 11, July 25 and July 27, 2016, he was told he was being placed in absent without leave (AWOL) status; and,
- 6) On July 15, 2016, he was told his request for leave under the Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA) was being denied.

DECLARANT'S BACKGROUND INFORMATION

From the time that I arrived until May 2016, when Butler was not selected for the full-time Auditor position, I believed him to be a really nice and decent guy. I had no issues with him to that point and thought he was an outstanding employee. I even encouraged him to apply for the Auditor position when it posted. I also know that ASAC Tillman spent a lot of time working with FBIHQ to see if there was any way to get Butler qualified for the position. Once Butler's application for the Auditor position was rejected by FBIHQ due to insufficient educational requirements, Butler's performance began to suffer. His attitude changed from day to night. He was disgruntled with FBIHQ and he began to become a problem in the office. I could not have seen his change in attitude coming based upon my prior interactions with him.

Defendant No. 1, Special Agent in Charge (SAC), Thomas Class – “TC”

Contained herein are statements made by SAC “TC” in his own words. The FBI OIG, nor did the Office of Federal Operations address these statements made by “TC”, as is seen or not seen within their decision letter dated 10/06/2020. I ask the court to properly assess the evidence, which is included within this exhibit. The complete case file will be provided to the court when the court finds it appropriate.

“TC” created material harm to the plaintiff when he wrote on July 20, 2017 “FBI-Sworn Testimony” that he deactivated Plaintiff’s work access badge because he (Plaintiff), was displaying erratic behavior. At no time before plaintiff filed a EEO complaint did “TC” express any concern over the plaintiff’s workplace demeanor. These slanderous statements were made in written form, a year after the plaintiff left to seek treatment for his injuries but were never given to the plaintiff or the plaintiff’s attorney of record at the time (Rob Wiley and Associates).

- Is it reasonable to the court, that the Supervisory in Charge of the entire North Texas FBI would have these concerns but never address them with his employee who worked directly under him, “TC” as the Auditor? “TC” expresses valid security concerns within his FBI Sworn Testimony but failed to alert the plaintiff. This is not reasonable.
- Is it reasonable to the court, that an FBI employee could attempt to enter any FBI space with unauthorized firearms? Is it reasonable to believe that an unauthorized employee would ask permission to enter an FBI installation with privately owned firearms?
- Is it reasonable to the court, that an FBI employee could engage in threatening behavior towards fellow FBI employees and not be formally counseled, charge and admonished for the alleged behavior?
- “TC” never produced one statement from any employee that proved his allegations were correct. In fact, the plaintiff was promoted during the time, the alleged “road rage incident” occurred.

Plaintiff has never engaged in inappropriate behavior as is seen in his FBI Directors Certificate of Achievement, multiple promotions, monetary cash awards and Ultimately his rated “Outstanding” Performance ratings for which he was told was the reason he (Plaintiff), was being detailed to the coveted Auditor position. Plaintiff has never been rated below “Excellent” during his FBI tenure.

I respectfully ask the court to examine the testimony given by “TC”, as his statements can only be viewed as retaliatory given there are no statements, affidavits or even a witness name included within his “TC”, fraudulent testimony.

The Administrative Judge found that the statements contained within this testimony were appropriate even though no evidence supports its conclusions. It cannot be reasonable that an employee is barred from entering his workplace without evidence to support the action.

I ask the court to overturn her decision.

Defendant No. 2, Assistant Special Agent in Charge (ASAC), Niambi Tillman – “NT”

Contained herein are statements made by ASAC “NT” in her own words. The Office of Federal Operations refused to hold this FBI employee accountable as is seen or not seen within their decision letter dated 10/06/2020. I ask the court to properly assess the evidence, which is included within this exhibit. The complete case file will be provided to the court when the court finds it appropriate.

“NT” created material harm to the plaintiff when she wrote on February 27, 2017 “Letter to Office of Workman’s Compensation-OWCP”, that she was aware of Plaintiff being locked out of his workplace on multiple occasions. But, in Sworn FBI testimony “NT” wrote on July 17, 2017, that she was unaware of plaintiff being locked out of his workplace “Lack of Candor.”

“NT” demonstrated a lack of candor and as such harmed the plaintiff by not speaking truthfully concerning the apparent retaliation from management officials who charged plaintiff with AWOL when he clearly was not allowed to enter his workplace. In addition, “NT” spoke to the apparent injuries the plaintiff was dealing with, which we assert prevented him from returning to work without proper treatment. Plaintiff was never allowed to obtain necessary medical treatment for his accepted OWCP injuries given the untruthful statements made by “NT” and other FBI management officials.

LACK OF CANDOR

ASAC Niambi Tillman, Official Statement, Department of Justice (DOJ)
Federal Bureau of Investigation, Dated February 27, 2017

RE: ~~Response~~ to Letter drafted by Financial Operations Specialist (FOS)
Archie Butler

ASAC Niambi Tillman, Signed Sworn Statement, EEOC Affidavit

RE: Sworn Testimony, dated July 18, 2017, pursuant to 18 U.S.C., 1621

The ~~response letter/statement~~ contained herein was sent to the Office of Workman's Compensation (OWCP) to refute my claim of injury (Claim 102025649). I offer this evidence to demonstrate a pattern of "misconduct" by Dallas FBI management officials regarding my claim(s) of Racial Discrimination.

This information speaks directly to the Charge(s) of AWOL, as Dallas FBI officials knew I was not allowed access to my workplace on multiple occasions, spanning multiple months. This information also demonstrates the total disregard for the truth or a human beings civil rights.

I have not entered the entire written statement or the entire sworn statement as to only highlight the matter of "lack of candor." If needed, and at your request, I will provide the complete record. No statement contained has been altered other than providing a shortened version.

Thank you

Response to Letter drafted by FOS Archie Butler

In response to the letter drafted by FOS Archie Butler, I have provided my personal insights and recollections as they pertain to several portions of the letter. I did not respond to any items in the letter of which I do not have personal, direct knowledge.

The actions of the FBI Dallas Division's Executive Management team and my immediate Supervisor has caused and continues to cause me extreme mental stress and duress. May 2016, I notified Executive Management, FBI - Dallas Division of the mental stress they were causing me as evidenced by FMLA paperwork from Dr. Kristen Becke with the Veterans Administration, North Texas Health Care Center (attached in medical documentation) and an e-mail correspondence from me to executive management, ASAC Neambi Tillman. I did not file a OWCP CA2 for stress originally, because I thought the stress was covered under my open OWCP claim number 102028849, but was informed on November 28, 2016, that stress is a separate claim. I am currently receiving treatment for a back condition that has worsened over the past two years or so and a claim is pending. Moreover, the stress of this situation, in my opinion and that of my primary care physicians, has attributed to the worsening of my back condition.

For background purposes, I offer the following regarding FOS Butler prior to my being notified of any work-related stressors for FOS Butler in May 2016.

During the week of April 18, 2016, I received a text message from Mr. Butler advising me and SFOS Sandra K. Hollingshead (hereafter referred to as Sandy) that FOS Butler would be taking sick leave (SL) for the remainder of the week however, he did not offer any explanation regarding the nature of the ailment which warranted the use of sick leave.

In an email, on FBI.NET, dated April 28, 2016, from Mr. Butler to the writer, Mr. Butler advised Dallas EM of the following:

"The Dallas Division Auditor position (Permanent) became available in February 2016, and I submitted an application for appointment. Upon review, the Human Resources Division (HRD)-FBIHQ found me unqualified for the position of Auditor, stating that I do not meet the 24 hour Accounting educational requirement. I have submitted several responses to HRD explaining the nature of my classes (Accounting) to include class descriptions taken directly from the schools syllabi (Grantham Univ., Southern Illinois Univ., Ellis Univ.) to no avail. As such, per the Office of Personnel Management, an employee cannot be detailed to the Auditor position whom does not meet the position requirement(s). I have had an enjoyable and learned experience performing in the role of Auditor- Dallas Division, and hopefully one day I will be able to fulfill the requirement return to my original position, but later after my repeated insistence my office returned. Even after I returned, I was asked to perform audits but I did not feel it was appropriate because of their repeated denial of my education. How could I continue to perform a job they said I was not qualified to hold?

As described above, FOS Butler first voiced his desire to vacate the A/A position on April 28, 2016, and he officially vacated the Auditor's office as of May 10, 2016.

When I returned to my SF-50 position, I was removed from my original office space and was told to sit at a cubicle (partially blocked by a door), that did not have a working computer or a phone jack. I took some mental stress days from the office to deal with the stress and when I returned my badge had been deactivated and I was locked out of the office. This humiliated me, as this was witnessed by my fellow co-workers. I had to go to the guard and actually personnel was asked to escort me to my office. I was originally told it was an accident, but when I met with the SAC, he informed me that he locked me out because I was a threat! He stated, I as the head of this installation must protect the employees of this Office.

FOS Butler is referring to his badge access being suspended on May 10, 2016 or May 19, 2016, at a time when I was physically in Washington, D.C. attending the Senior Management Incident Focus Group from May 16, 2016 through May 20, 2016. SSA Jeff Rutherford served as the A/ASAC during my absence. I was notified of FOS Butler's badge being suspended, which suspended his access to the building, upon my return when I met with SAC Class on May 20, 2016, at 1:00 pm. The 1:00 meeting was a preparatory meeting for a scheduled meeting with FOS Butler which was set to occur that same day at 2:00 pm between FOS Butler, CSO Mark White and Chief Division Counsel Thomas Petrovski. During the preparatory meeting, SAC Class explained his decision regarding the deactivation of FOS Butler's badge access was made in my absence due to a security threat assessment which was out of the office. Although I was not in the office during that time, SAC Class continues to make up his explanation to FOS Butler the decision was made by SAC Class and FOS Butler's badge access was suspended that afternoon at 2:00 pm. FOS Butler, never arrived for the meeting that day. Instead he extended his leave of absence.

On May 20, 2016, a subsequent meeting was held with SAC Class, Chief Security Officer (CSO) Mark White, Chief Division Counsel (CDC) Tom Petrovski, Employee Assistance Program (EAP) Coordinator Kevin Umrah and SFOF Sandy Hollingshead, after FOS Butler did not appear for his meeting. During that meeting, there was discussion primarily by CSO White about a previous "road rage" incident which occurred in February, 2015. I arrived in the Division as the ASAC on January 12, 2015, and I do not recall knowing anything about this "road rage" incident prior to the meeting on May 20, 2016. As such, I am not familiar with the details surrounding this incident nor any specifics regarding FOS Butler's involvement in the incident. As a result of this discussion, SAC Class decided to have FOS Butler's badge access deactivated over the weekend, May 21, 2016, and May 22, 2016, after which the badge would be activated when FOS Butler planned to return to work on Monday, May 23, 2016. CSO White was assigned the task of having FOS Butler's badge reactivated as instructed by SAC Class. FOS Butler did not return to work as expected on May 23, 2016.

also informed my office that I had a permanent back injury (OWCP Accepted Claim- 40% Disabled Veteran), that caused me constant pain and some mornings my back was severely swollen and I was unable to get out of bed, but I put in leave and would work late nights and weekends to ensure the work was completed. Also, the caliber of my work led to me receiving several on the spot financial awards and Outstanding Annual Performance Reviews (on a scale of 1 to 5, 5 being the highest, I received a 4.8 the last two years). Thus, I was told, was the reason I was being withheld to be Dallas Division's Acting Auditor.

I was advised by FOS Butler on several occasions he would come into the office on the weekend to complete work products. Each time FOS Butler brought this to my attention, I strongly discouraged him from coming into the office on the weekend. I emphasized the need for FOS Butler to have a good balance between work and personal life; and being in the office on the weekend did not support that balance. I also stressed to FOS Butler the need for him to claim comp time (or overtime if needed) to ensure he was compensated for the time he worked. In response to my comments, FOS Butler always explained that he did it because he chose to and although he understood my position he could not guarantee he would discontinue the practice.

The amount of professionalism and care I gave to my work and work relationships has been ruined for reasons unknown to me. I was and am not able to emotionally handle the repeated negative actions and complete disregard for me as a human being. It has negatively impacted my life. I have been unable to sleep and often feel that someone from my office will someday hurt me or someone close to me. Because of these feelings and lack of rest, I have been seeking professional treatment since May of 2016. In June 2016, I started seeing Dr. Gordon Seuer-Psychiatrist to deal with the work related stress that is causing me mental distress and disorder, I have been off work intermittently since May 2016 and my last day in the office was June 28, 2016 as prescribed by Dr. Seuer. I have been given numerous medications to offset my disorders but to date I am still unable to return to my duties.

The issues described are currently being investigated through an EEO claim. However, even this grievance process has not stopped the negative and stressful interactions with my employer, who over the last two weeks has been pressuring FBI-OWCP to call me for updated medical information that could be easily obtained from Whelan's Compensation.

The writer has had no direct contact with FOS Butler since September 2016.

In response, I quickly sent all current medical information and was told medical documentation was needed because I was holding up a position they want to fill.

I have never in my more than 20 years of federal service been treated this way. I served 11 years in the Army (Active/Reserve), 10 years in the US Postal Service and now over four with the FBI. Although I have countless awards and financial incentives, I feel devalued as a federal employee but more importantly as a human being. This is why I am forced to divulge my inner most thoughts and concerns to those versed in the practice of psychotherapy so I can remain mentally healthy despite ongoing attempts to characterize me as someone other than who I have proven to be.

Michael R. M. Tillman offers the above in response to the letter submitted by FOS Butler.

Dallas, TX

SIGNED SWEARS STATEMENT

I, Niambi R. M. Tillman, Assistant Special Agent in Charge (ASAC), Operational Support Branch (OSB), Dallas Division (DL), Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), do hereby solemnly swear to the following:

I have been advised by Supervisory Special Agent (SSA) Eric J. Croyle, Office of Equal Employment Opportunity Affairs (OEEOA), FBI, that he is investigating a complaint of employment discrimination (FBI-2016-00183) pursuant to Title 29 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Part 1614.

I understand the complainant is Archie Butler, Financial Operations Specialist (FOS), assigned to the Finance Office (FO), DL, FBI, and I have been identified as an individual who may possess information relevant to this matter. I understand that the issues accepted for investigation are:

Whether complainant was subjected to reprisal for prior EEO activity when:

- 1) On May 11, 2016, he was moved from an office to a cubicle;
- 2) On June 27, 2016, following a six-week absence, he discovered his desk did not have a telephone jack, he did not have access to the "low side terminal," and management had deactivated his access to financial systems;

- 3) On or around June 27, 2016, he was advised his badge was deactivated during his absence to support other employees insofar as he was "unpredictable," and it was indicated that he was a "threat";
- 4) On June 29, 2016, he was told he could not "flex," had to call his supervisor if he was more than 15 minutes late, and that if he were more than 5 minutes late, he would be charged leave;
- 5) On June 11, July 25 and July 27, 2016, he was told he was being placed in absent without leave (AWOL) status; and,
- 6) On July 15, 2016, he was told his request for leave under the Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA) was being denied.

DECLARANT'S BACKGROUND INFORMATION

EOD: 7/21/1996

Awareness of complainant's EEO activity: With respect to Butler's EEO activity; I did not become aware that Butler had engaged in EEO activity until January 2017, when I was contacted by an EEO Mediator. I deny that I ever had a conversation with Butler on May 10, 2016, or at any time prior to January 2017, where I stated that I was aware of his EEO activity.

DECLARANT'S STATEMENT

I entered on duty with the FBI on July 21, 1996. I am currently the OSB ASAC for DL where I have been assigned since January 2015. At no time did I discriminate or retaliate against Butler for his EEO activity.

With respect to allegation "1", I was aware that Butler was moved from an office to a cubicle when he returned to his position as an FOS, after his temporary assignment as the Acting Auditor. I was not involved in this decision but was aware that Butler's supervisor, Financial Manager (FM) Sandra Hollingshead, wanted all of the FOSs to be in the same room in cubicles.

With respect to allegation "2", I have no knowledge of these allegations. I am generally aware that some of the computer and financial systems lock users out if they haven't accessed the system for an extended period of time and that may have been the reason for his access being deactivated.

With respect to allegation "3", on June 27, 2016, I did sit in on a meeting between SAC Thomas Class and Butler, but I never heard Class mention anything about deactivating Butler's access badge to protect other employees, or that he was "unpredictable" or a "threat." Also, Class never instructed me to deactivate Butler's badge. I am only aware that Class was concerned about Butler's medical condition and wanted to ensure that he was in ~~good enough physical condition to perform his job until he did return.~~

On June 13, 2016, Butler advised he tried to get into the office and his badge did not work. I never told Butler that his access badge was broken or lie to him on June 13, 2016. On June 14, 2016, I sent an email to our Chief Security Officer (CSO) Mark White where I informed him that Butler's badge did not work on June 13, 2016, and asked if there was something wrong with his badge. On June 15, 2016, White responded that Butler should have had unrestricted access to the building as of June 3, 2016, and included an explanation that he believed it was just a "glitch/error" in the system when Butler's badge failed to work on June 13, 2016.

I did call Butler while he was on leave to pass on a message from SAC Class. Hollingshead met with SAC Class and alleged that in a meeting between her and Butler, Butler used the racially derogatory "n" word. SAC Class requested that I contact Butler and advise him that that language would not be tolerated. Subsequently, I called Butler and informed him of SAC Class's concerns regarding his interactions with Hollingshead.

With respect to allegation "4", On June 29, 2016, I did have a meeting with Butler and Hollingshead after Hollingshead

SSA Croyle, EEO Investigator, has instructed me not to discuss this interview or share the contents of this statement with anyone other than the person(s) conducting this interview, OEECA representatives, the Office of the General Counsel or the declarant's designated representative, the Ombudsman's Office, and/or the Employee Assistance Program.

I have been admonished that I must obtain authorization from the EEO Officer or her designee prior to discussing this matter with anyone outside the offices referenced above. I also understand that my failure to comply with this confidentiality provision may result in referral for disciplinary action.

I declare under penalty of perjury pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 1621 the foregoing is true and correct.

Defendant No. 3, Supervisory Financial Operations Specialist, SFOS Sandra Hollingshead, "SH"

Contained herein are statements made by SFOS Sandra Hollingshead "SH" in her own words. The Office of Federal Operations refused to hold this FBI employee accountable as is seen or not seen within their decision letter dated 10/06/2020. I ask the court to properly assess the evidence, which is included within this exhibit. The complete case file will be provided to the court when the court finds it appropriate.

"SH" created material harm to the plaintiff when she wrote on February 22, 2017 "Letter to Office of Workman's Compensation-OWCP", that she was aware that Plaintiff had engaged in protected EEOC activity on May 11, 2016. But, in Sworn FBI testimony "SH" wrote on July 28, 2017, that she was unaware of plaintiff's protected EEOC activity.

"SH" actually states within her letter to the OWCP, that she was made aware of plaintiff's EEOC activity to include where the EEOC Counselor was located regionally.

"SH" demonstrated a lack of candor and as such harmed the plaintiff by not speaking truthfully concerning the FBI Sworn Testimony processes thus thwarting the rule of law. In addition, "SH" spoke to the apparent injuries the plaintiff was dealing with, which we assert prevented him from returning to work without proper treatment. Plaintiff was never allowed to obtain necessary medical treatment for his accepted OWCP injuries given the untruthful statements made by "SH" and other FBI management officials.

At no time did "SH" speak to plaintiff about any alleged displeasure with his work regimen or demeanor until he filed an EEO claim. Plaintiff's "outstanding Performance reviews were given him by his Supervisor "SH", to include several monetary awards.

Archie Butler

SFOS Sandra Hollingshead, Signed Sworn Statement, EEOC Affidavit

RE: Sworn Testimony, dated July 28, 2017, pursuant to 18 U.S.C., 1621

The ~~response~~ letter/statement contained herein was sent to the Office of Workman's Compensation (OWCP) to refute my claim of injury (Claim 162254508). I offer this evidence to demonstrate a pattern of "misconduct" by Dallas FBI management officials regarding my claim(s) of Racial Discrimination.

Dallas FBI officials knew (written statement to OWCP) I was engaged in protected EEOC activity but state in sworn testimony that that were unaware. This information also demonstrates the total disregard for the truth or a human beings civil rights.

I have not entered the entire written statement or the entire sworn statement as to only highlight the matter of "lack of candor." If needed, and at your request, I will provide the complete record. No statement contained has been altered other than providing a shortened version.

Thank you

RE: FOS Archie Butler Letter:

I will address several paragraphs/sentences of the Archie Butler Letter:

The actions of the FBI Dallas Division's Executive Management team and my immediate Supervisor has caused and continues to cause me extreme mental stress and duress. May 2016, I notified Executive Management, FBI – Dallas Division of the mental stress they were causing me as evidenced by FMLA paperwork from Dr. Kristen Backe with the Veterans Administration, North Texas Health Care Center (attached in medical documentation) and an e-mail correspondence from me to executive management, ASAC Naombi Tillman. I did not file a OWCP CA2 for stress originally, because I thought the stress was covered under my open OWCP claim number 102025649, but was informed on November 28, 2016, that stress is a separate claim. I am currently receiving treatment for a back condition that has worsened over the past two years or so and a claim is pending. Moreover, the stress of this situation, in my opinion and that of my primary care physicians, has attributed to the worsening of my back condition.

Paragraph 1, Page 1, Sentences 1 – 2:

Since transitioning back to the FOS position on May 9, 2016, the following timeline are actions that occurred by FOS Butler in regards to his time and attendance and notifying his supervisor of his whereabouts:

During week of April 18, 2016, FOS Butler sent a text message to ASAC Tillman and myself advising he will be taking SL for the remainder of the week. ASAC Tillman responded back as to whether he was having surgery on his back; however, he did not respond. When he returned the following week, he mentioned to me that he obtained a lawyer and met with them on Monday and Tuesday (the dates he advised he was on AL/SL). He did not produce a doctor's note that I am aware of even though he advised in his text that he would get the doctor's note to Nurse Karla Kennedy. FOS Butler never mentioned he was filing a workman's comp claim for stress or for any injury since I have been in this division. On one occasion, he told a fellow coworker, FOS Ben Pelg. and myself that he was healthy, had no issues (note: this was the day following a VA appointment).

I found out about the workman's comp claim when I received the automatic notification from the Department of Labor that I had a document to review. I was out of the office during that time and was not able to open the document on my Samsung phone. I forwarded the document to SAC Thomas Class and ASAC Niambi Tillman to see if they could. SAC Class advised he was able to open the document and advised it was a workman's comp claim for FOS Butler.

On July 7, 2016, I received email from Joyce Saccaro advising that the DOL workers compensation claim was not approved. I contacted her to discuss this matter as this was the first time having to deal with this type of form and based on her explaining the criteria that needs to be meant for a workman's comp claim, FOS Butler did not meet any of those, therefore, I had advised I would not approve because he did not meet that threshold.

On another occasion (May 2, 2016), I sent a text message to FOS Butler asking him to say where he was, as I had not seen him that day. He advised he was very ill and not coming in. He said he thought he had sent me a text message; however, I did not receive one. The next day he came into the office but did not see me; therefore, I sent him a lynx text to check on him and he advised he was fine. He came in 2 hours late (no prior leave slip submitted/no prior approval). Historically, I was lenient on him coming in late, as I was aware he had back problems and often times stopped by the nursing home to visit his mother. However, after he was in the acting Auditor position, he failed to advise me of his comings and goings, which he had done in the past, so I began questioning where he was.

Then, on May 4, 2016, he had left at 3:30p (no leave slip submitted/approved prior) advising that he was going to "work on the barrel to his firearm". It should be noted that he constantly made references to his use of firearms and going to the shooting range.

On May 9, 2016, he had sent the following text message to my personal phone wanting me to change our Finance Office meeting to 11 am rather than the scheduled 10 am due to the following: "A coworker asked me for my help with their family estate this morning. Its starts at 930 and should conclude shortly after! I shouldn't take me more than 30 minutes to get to work after that." (No leave slip was submitted/approved prior).

I advised that I would brief him when he came in. He came in at 10:30, went to wash hands, then was out of the office for some time. He asked if there was anything I needed for him to do and I had asked him if he could go to closed files to locate a T# that was needed for an employee. He said "do I really have to do that?" then came in and obtained the number and left closed files. He returned back then went to lunch. Later in the day I asked him if he had any luck. He said he had been in there three different times and was not able to locate the T#. I then advised for him to contact the secretary to see if it was logged, which it was. He was then able to obtain a copy. Upon my departure for the day, I noticed he was outside talking on his phone so I waited for him. I advised him that I would like to meet with him first thing tomorrow. He advised "yes ma'am."

On May 11, 2016, I received a text message on my personal phone at 9:19 am advising "tough morning on my way." I responded and advised we need to have a meeting.

Upon his arrival, I sat with FOS Butler and advised I had concerns of his comings and goings and how things have changed since he became the acting Auditor. He proceeded to tell me how he was "not mad" but disappointed in this office. He was not happy with how the SAC handled his package. All he wanted was someone to sit him down and explain that the Auditor position was going in a different direction and he was "not the right fit" for the position. He continued to advise how the UC in HRC (Jackie LNU) basically has ruined his career because he cannot qualify for any jobs. He explained that he has filed a grievance and some individual from Sacramento (PNU LNU) office is handling his case.

He then advised how he spoke with ASAC Tillman and advised of his concerns as well and that she had made a comment as to whether or not he was going to his car. (Note: He makes it known that he carries assault type firearms in his vehicle and was told as long as he parked outside the gate, he was allowed to). He then advised 'what do they think I'm gonna shoot up the place' and proceeded to use the "N word." I had asked him to not use that word because I felt it to be extremely offensive. He again said the "N" word and I asked him to stop.

He then continued to advise he never wanted the Auditor position but now "they" (meaning Bureau) are making it personal because he did not qualify for the position. He told me about the accounting courses he had and that how the Bureau is not looking at the objective portion to show that he has qualifying courses. He advised he had a master's degree and that just because the letters (course numbers) were different, they were treating it as not being qualified.

He advised this was not what he wants to do at this time (meaning working in finance). I told him that if he needed to take some time off that we needed to talk about it first. I then advised of the meeting I had with the Finance Office, the changes to the area of responsibility, and that I would like him to relocate to the remaining desk in the finance office (he was sitting in the back storage area) and that I wanted to him to be part of the team/unit. He said he would. As I was talking to him about the relocation to the new cubicle, he got up and advised whatever was needed he would do. His mannerism at this time seemed to be very agitated, in my opinion, as he got up then left my office, then apparently left the building.

Later in the day, I had asked a fellow employee if he had seen FOS Butler and the individual advised he told them he would see them on Monday. This leave was not discussed nor approved by me. I sent FOS Butler a text message asking if everything was ok and if he would return tomorrow.

Upon arriving home, I received the following text message: "I called to tell you that I will be out for an unspecified amount of time. I and my family, are thinking it may be better for me to cut my losses and consider other opportunities. I will be sending a leave of absence

FOS Butler came to me later that day and advised that SFoA Burke was a "racist" and he did not appreciate the way SFoA Burke was questioning him on whether or not he knew accounting. SFoA Burke also came to me the next day and advised what had transpired and that he asked FOS Butler if he knew what accrual accounting was, which is when FOS Butler became angry.

Then, I was questioned about my time and attendance. I was always told by members of the Executive Management team that my attendance and work performance was above reproach and it was not necessary or recommended that I work so many hours. But, in my former life as a Sergeant in the Army, I was taught that attendance is paramount. It speaks to who I am as a person. I regularly work 50 to 60 hours a week. I come in on the weekends and Holidays without seeking compensation (pay or compensatory credit hours). If I am late, I make up for it on the back end of the work day (Allowed by Supervisor) and yet I still put in leave. I also informed my office that I had a permanent back injury (OWCP Accepted Claim- 40% Disabled Veteran), that caused me constant pain and some mornings my back was severely swollen and I was unable to get out of bed, but I put in leave and would work late nights and weekends to ensure the work was completed. Also, the caliber of my work led to me receiving several on the spot financial awards and Outstanding Annual Performance Reviews (on a scale of 1 to 5, 5 being the highest, I received a 4.8 the last two years). This, I was told, was the reason I was being voluntold to be Dallas Division's Acting Auditor.

Paragraph 3, Page 2, Sentences 1 - 2:

Regarding FOS Butler's time and attendance: Both myself and ASAC Tillman have advised FOS Butler on at least two occasions that if he was going to work after hours or on weekends that he needed to claim comp and/or overtime (if available). He said he just wanted to get the job done and did not want to claim anything. However, we advised he could not work for "free" and that it needed to be claimed. On one occasion (December 27, 2015), his WebTA reflected that he claimed six hours of comp time and I had sent him an IM advising whether or not that was accurate. He responded, "Yes ma'am, I have worked more weekends than listed but I did not want to overdo it. I only put this time in because I was told to do so, otherwise I would have wanted it to go as planned and work to get it done." Upon further review, it was determined that he did not badge in/out anywhere in the building on same date.

With respect to allegation "1", on May 11, 2016, I met with FOS Butler to discuss his return to the FOS position and about concerns I had of his comings and goings from the office and how things have changed since he was the Acting Auditor. Among other topics, we discussed his return to FOS duties. FOS Butler advised this was not what he wants to do at this time (meaning working in finance). This space was not being blocked by the door as the door opens outwards towards the hallway. While our space was undergoing construction, FOS Butler had previously been sitting at a small desk in a storage area, but it was not an office, it is used to store all of our financial documents that have been processed. During that meeting, FOS Butler responded that he would. Since FOS Butler had been the Acting Auditor, I received two additional FOS's and in order to promote comradery, I wanted all

Defendant No. 4, Acting/Assistant Special Agent In Charge (SUPV), Jeff Rutherford – “JR”

Contained herein are statements made by A/ASAC “JR” in his own words. The Office of Federal Operations refused to hold this FBI employee accountable as is seen or not seen within their decision letter dated 10/06/2020. I ask the court to properly assess the evidence, which is included within this exhibit. The complete case file will be provided to the court when the court finds it appropriate.

“JR” created material harm to the plaintiff when he wrote on July 16, 2016 “Email to Plaintiff”, that FBI management officials were suspending the plaintiff’s access to his workplace, while he (Plaintiff), was on medical leave. But, in FBI Sworn Testimony, A/ASAC Rutherford wrote on July 14, 2017 that Plaintiff’s access was actually being suspended because he (Plaintiff), had attempted entry at 4:00 am during his period of medical leave which caused FBI management official’s concern.

“JR” demonstrated a lack of candor and as such harmed the plaintiff by not speaking truthfully concerning the apparent retaliation from management officials who charged plaintiff with AWOL when he clearly was not allowed to enter his workplace. In addition, “JR” clearly demonstrates his lack of candor by not addressing the plaintiff’s concerns which were, why he was being denied access to the workplace. Surely if the plaintiff engaged in improper work protocols someone would have told him.

Instead, FBI Dallas management officials chose to insert unproven allegations into Sworn Testimony while never engaging the plaintiff in direct communication to state their reason(s) for taking the action of locking him out. This, we believe, is an example of “Lack of Candor” to include thwarting the rule of law.

Subject: Re: Leave

Hey Mr. Rutherford,

Thank you for the update and I will not attempt to enter the premises until I am released by my doctor. But, if possible, could you tell me why my access is being suspended? This is the second time I have been on medical leave for which my access to the building has been suspended. I just want to know what this is pertaining to and or why this is happening?

As far as my return sir, that is for now, dependent on what the Orthopedic Surgeon suggest the next course of action will be. I will most assuredly make ASAC Tillman aware of my status in the future.

Thank you sir

Archie

Archie,

Since you are on extended leave (30-60 days), you won't need access to the building during that time. The SAC wishes to meet with you when you return, so work with ASAC Tillman to coordinate when you have a firm return date. Also, ASAC Tillman is back in division next week if you would like to discuss this matter further.

Thanks,
Jeff

~~XXXXXX XXXXX XXXXXXXX~~

I, Jeff D. Rutherford, Supervisory Special Agent (SSA), Technical Operations Squad, Dallas Division (DL), Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), do hereby solemnly swear to the following:

I have been advised by Supervisory Special Agent (SSA) Eric
J. Croyle, Office of Equal Employment Opportunity Affairs
(OEEOA), FBI, that he is investigating a complaint of employment discrimination (FBI-2016-00186) pursuant to Title 29 of the Code of Federal Regulations, Part 1614.

I understand the complainant is Archie Butler, Financial Operations Specialist (FOS), assigned to the Finance Office (FO), DL, FBI, and I have been identified as an individual who may possess information relevant to this matter. I understand that the issues accepted for investigation are:

Whether complainant was subjected to reprisal for prior EEO activity when:

- 1) On May 11, 2016, he was moved from an office to a cubicle;
- 2) On June 27, 2016, following a six-week absence, he discovered his desk did not have a telephone jack, he did not have access to the "low side terminal," and management had deactivated his access to financial systems:

- 3) On or around June 27, 2016, he was ~~informed his badge was~~ deactivated during his absence to ~~perform other assignments~~ insofar as he was "unpredictable," ~~and it was indicated~~ that he was a "threat";
- 4) On June 29, 2016, he was told he could not "flex," had to call his supervisor if he was more than 15 minutes late, and that if he were more than 5 minutes late, he would be charged leave;
- 5) On June 11, July 25 and July 27, 2016, he was told he was being placed in absent without leave (AWOL) status; and,
- 6) On July 11, 2016, he was told his request for leave under the Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA) was being denied.

DECLARANT'S BACKGROUND INFORMATION

EEO: 4/6/2013

Awareness of complainant's EEO activity: With respect to Butler's EEO activity, I did not become aware that Butler had engaged in EEO activity until I was contacted by EEO

Investigator, SSA Eric J. Croyle, on July 6, 2017.

DECLARANT'S STATEMENT

I entered on duty with the FBI on April 6, 2003 as a Special Agent. I am currently the SSA over the Technical Operations Squad in CI where I have been since August 2012. At no time did I discriminate or retaliate against Archie Butler for his EEO activity or for any other reason.

With respect to allegation "1", I have no knowledge of these allegations.

With respect to allegation "2", I have no knowledge of these allegations.

With respect to allegation "3", I have no knowledge of these allegations and did not make any decisions regarding Butler's access to the building. My only involvement in this matter occurred on July 6, 2016, when I was temporarily filling in for Assistant Special Agent in Charge (ASAC) Niamh Tillman for the day. At the ASAC meeting that morning, one of the other ASAC's mentioned to SAC Thomas Class that Butler had attempted to enter the building several days earlier at 4:00 am. SAC Class questioned why he would be trying to get in the building at all since he was on long-term medical leave, and was especially curious as to why he would be trying to get in at four o'clock in the morning. SAC Class instructed me to ensure that the Electronics Technicians (ET) were ordered to continue to restrict Butler's access until he advised he would be returning to work. I contacted ASAC Tillman to advise her and she agreed and instructed me to send a message to Butler advising him of the same. Later that day I sent an email to Butler advising him that his access would be temporarily suspended until he advised that he would be returning to work. I also instructed Butler to advise ASAC [redacted] of any updates and of his planned return date. I did not personally make the decision to suspend Butler's access to the building. I only informed him of the decision.

With respect to allegation "4", I have no knowledge of these allegations.

With respect to allegation "5", I have no knowledge of these allegations.

With respect to allegation "6", I have no knowledge of these allegations other than I was generally aware that he was out on some long term medical leave status.

I do not have knowledge of any additional information I believe is relevant to the scope of this inquiry as SSA Croyle described it to me. I have read this statement consisting of five pages. The entire statement is true and complete to the best of my knowledge and belief.

SSA Croyle, EEO Investigator, has instructed me not to discuss this interview or share the contents of this statement with anyone other than the person(s) conducting this interview, CEECA representatives, the Office of the General Counsel or the declarant's designated representative, the Ombudsman's Office,

I have been admonished that I must obtain authorization from the EEO Officer or her designee prior to discussing this matter with anyone outside the offices referenced above. I also understand that my failure to comply with this confidentiality provision may result in referral for disciplinary action.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Defendant No. 5, Unit Chief (UC)-FBI HRD, Jackie Estok, "JE"

Contained herein are statements made by "JE", in her own words. The Office of Federal Operations refused to address the plaintiff's education credentials nor did the Administrative Judge within her Summary Judgement. I ask the court to properly assess the evidence, which is included within this exhibit. The complete case file will be provided to the court when the court finds it appropriate.

"JE" created material harm to the plaintiff when she wrote on March 23, 2016 "Email to ASAC Niambi Tillman", that detailed what she believed to be the education standard used in government service to adjudicate an employee's education credentials.

"JE" wrote that course category is the means test by which she uses to determine course suitability. She goes on to say her staff was lenient in crediting plaintiff's Managerial and Financial Accounting courses as sufficient to prove they were in fact Accounting course given they were labeled, or the course prefix was "BA" instead of "ACCT". "JE" failed to understand that the plaintiff was enrolled in an Undergraduate and Graduate study of Business for which accounting is essential. Therefore, his course or class prefix will read as "BA", instead of "ACCT".

The plaintiff sent an email to the Office of Personnel Management (OPM), to ask the central question by which education credentials and their acceptance should be asserted.

OPM sent an email to plaintiff on July 12, 2016, which states in part, that school prefix assigned by schools do not determine acceptability of course work.

Therefore, the non-certification of Plaintiff's education credentials should have been reversed given the attached information contained herein that adequately meets the threshold for Accounting course certification.

To date, the FBI, OPR nor AJ have properly adjudicated plaintiff's education credentials for the job of auditor, GS-12. The job of Auditor in 2016 required 24 hours of accredited accounting coursework.

Plaintiff asks the court to view the evidence in a light most favorable to the plaintiff and reverse the previous decisions. Plaintiff also asks the court to start the tolling time of 45 days for a governmental grievance filing from the date UC "JE" sent her adjudication email on March 23, 2016. The FBI EEOC refused to add the education non-certification as a complaint.

Any reasonable person would believe that the "JE" email would serve as the final act of discrimination before they filed a complaint given "JE" is/was the final authority for FBI education certification. Therefore, plaintiff was well within the 45 day rule when he filed a complaint on April 28, 2016. The complaint of education non-certification should have been granted given the factual information attached.

Niambi:

Based on a review of Mr. Butler's transcripts and his email, he does not possess the appropriate accounting coursework to be credited towards the Auditor position. For example, courses in the [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] accounting, etc. would be creditable. My staff was lenient by crediting the [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] coursework along with Business Law I and II which only credited him with 12 out of the 24 semester hours needed. Possessing the coursework as described in the vacancy announcement is a basic requirement which must be met before my staff would even review the resume for specialized experience. [REDACTED] Butler has highlighted other courses which reflect some type of [REDACTED] but these are not accounting courses. I understand he must be disappointed however this is a basic requirement for the position. I hope this answers your concerns.

Hello Mr. Butler,

Thank you for your inquiry. The course prefix assigned by the school does not determine acceptability of course work when evaluating them to meet qualification requirements. The course syllabus and course outline should be referenced to evaluate the acceptability for crediting. The nature and quality of the course work must have been such that it would serve as a prerequisite for more advanced study in the field or subject-matter area. Related course work generally refers to courses that may be accepted as part of the program major.

Best regards,

Subject: Auditor GS-12 Position FBI....

Hello and good afternoon,

My name is Archie Butler-Financial Operations Specialist-Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), and I am currently serving in the role of Acting Auditor, which is/was a GS-12 position within the Dallas Field Office, FBI. I applied for the permanent position when it became available (FBIJOBS.GOV), in February 2016 but was told that I did not meet the Educational Requirement- Candidate must have a degree in accounting; or a degree in a related field such as business administration, finance, or public administration that included or was supplemented by 24 semester hours in accounting. The 24 hours may include up to 6 hours of credit in business law. (The term "accounting" means "accounting and/or auditing" in this standard. Similarly, "accountant" should be interpreted, generally, as "accountant and/or auditor.").

I have an MBA from an accredited University to include a Bachelor of Business Administration. I have posted my

Archie Butler-Sworn Statement Exhibit 1

Questions and Answers Concerning Revised 1102 Qualification Standard

The qualification standard identifies eleven fields for the 24-hour coursework requirement. Does this mean an acceptable course must have a course number identifying one of the fields (for example, an "economics" course might be "ECN 401")?

The answer to this question first requires an understanding of the purpose of the 24-hour coursework requirement, which is to provide a person with a minimum amount of business knowledge. This is particularly important because the primary function of contract specialists is to negotiate and execute business relationships on behalf of the Government. The eleven fields listed in the standard are identical to those set forth by Congress in DAWIA, and presumably they were selected because they capture the types of knowledge and skills desired for members of the acquisition workforce to execute this function.

Colleges and universities do not use a standard convention for course numbering aligned to the eleven fields. For example, one institution identifies its accounting curriculum as "AMIS" courses, standing for "accounting and management information systems." Therefore, it is neither practical nor reasonable to restrict interpretation of the word "fields" to institutional programs using precisely the same language. Instead, it is appropriate to consider the identified fields as general subject areas. If the content of a course arguably fits within the general subject area represented by one of the fields, it should qualify toward the 24-hour requirement. A human resource specialist, or whoever in your organization credits completion of the 24 hours, may need to review the course syllabus whenever it is not obvious from the course title that content fits the field. Consider these examples: a sociology course in statistics; a public administration course in quantitative techniques; a psychology course in organizational behavior. If the content of these courses is comparable to, or perhaps is recognized by the academic institution as a substitute for, courses clearly resting in the listed fields, you should receive credit toward the 24-hour requirement. It is your responsibility to furnish supporting descriptive information if credit for a course is being questioned.

OVERALL SUMMARY RATING NARRATIVE

Financial Operations Specialist (FOS) Archie Butler is responsible for processing confidential, commercial, travel payment requests, monitoring outstanding confidential advances, returning funds to HQ, processing direct advances, and assisting with clarification on issues within the Finance Office. FOS Butler is an outstanding employee. During this rating period, the following is noted:

Critical Element #1 - Organizing, Planning, and Coordinating

FOS Butler poses outstanding organizational and planning skills. On a daily basis, he is responsible for ensuring that numerous payment requests are processed to meet the operational needs for the Agents and the Division.

FOS Butler modifies his schedule if needs arise in order to meet deadlines or ensuring expedited finance requests are handled timely. He independently plans, prioritizes, and schedules his own work in order to meet the goals and objectives of the Finance Office. FOS Butler works beyond his normal hours in order to ensure work is processed timely

Critical Element #2 - Acquiring, Applying, and Sharing Job Knowledge

FOS Butler provides guidance and instructions to fellow staff members and the division. Confidential transactions (i.e. advances, expenses, and return of funds) can become complicated and require extra attention to detail. The UFMS system can also create challenges which FOS Butler is able to assess and find an alternate method to arrive at the same outcome.

Critical Element #3 - Analyzing, Research, and Problem Solving

When problems arise, FOS Butler pulls reports and gathers the relevant information from UFMS and FRA in order to see it from every angle. Being able to see the entire picture is extremely beneficial to determine the cause of the problems and the appropriate course of corrective action. He is able to put the action into motion and advise other individuals in the office of what action they need to take to effectively and efficiently resolve the problem. If he is uncertain of an outcome, he would independently detail his ideas to the Financial Manager in order to gain more insight as to a better solution.

Critical Element #4 - Relating with Others and Providing Professional Service

FOS Butler continues to provide professional service to employees. He takes the initiative to ensure issues are handled timely and questioned are answered. He ensures travel reimbursements are handled timely.

FOS Butler has a vital role in ensuring the transactions are accurate before it is processed. He also assists other staff members with reviewing the transactions prior to the checks being issued or transactions

He takes the initiative to provide feedback to new applications or business processes that are being implemented in the Finance Office.

FOS Butler demonstrates excellent knowledge of UFMS and FRA. He is able to maneuver through the different processes with ease and understanding. When new policies are implemented relating to travel, he ensures those affected (i.e. 18-month TDY's) are advised of same.

Critical Element #7 - Performing Administrative and Computer Activities

FOS Butler contacts the employee to advise that his/her transaction was paid or will be delinquent and ensures prompt liquidation of such.

FOS Butler uses the computer on a daily basis for inputting transactions, reviewing obligations, and ensuring timely liquidation of such.

Critical Element #8 - Accounting, Budgeting, and Procurement

FOS Butler reviews transactions on a daily basis to ensure compliance with rules, regulations, and guidelines. If errors occur, FOS Butler contacts the responsible party to advise of such and to provide resolution.

FOS Butler is familiar with procurement rules and enforces them as needed. He assists the FM with budget matters, should the FM be out of the office to ensure funding is available prior to processing the transaction.

Critical Element #9 - Achieving Results

FOS Butler is a vital member of the Dallas Finance Office. He contributes to the success and excellent reputation that the office and the division work hard to maintain. Appeal No. 2019005250

Hearing No. 450-2018-00059X

Agency No. FBI-2016-00183

DECISION

On August 12, 2019, Complainant filed an appeal with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC or Commission), pursuant to 29 C.F.R. § 1614.403(a), from the Agency's July 15, 2019 final order concerning his equal employment opportunity (EEO) complaint alleging employment discrimination in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (Title VII), as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e et seq. Our review is de novo. For the following reasons, the Commission AFFIRMS the Agency's final order.

BACKGROUND

At the time of events giving rise to this complaint, Complainant worked as a Financial Operations Specialist, GS-11, at the Agency's Finance Office, Dallas Division in Dallas, Texas.

On November 10, 2016, Complainant filed an EEO complaint wherein he claimed that the Agency discriminated against him on the bases of his race (African-American) and in reprisal for his prior protected EEO activity when:

1. On May 11, 2016, he was moved from an office to a cubicle;

¹ This case has been randomly assigned a pseudonym which will replace Complainant's name when the decision is published to non-parties and the Commission's website.

2. On June 27, 2016, following a six-week absence, he discovered his desk did not have a telephone jack, he did not have access to the "low side terminal" and management had deactivated his access to the financial systems;
3. On or around June 27, 2016, he was informed his badge was deactivated during his absence to protect other employees insofar as he was "unpredictable," and it was insinuated he was a "threat;"
4. On June 29, 2016, he was told he could not "flex." had to call his Supervisor if he was more than 15 minutes late and that if he was more than five minutes late, he would be charged leave;
5. On July 11, July 25, and July 27, 2016, he was told he was being placed in an absent without leave (AWOL) status; and
6. On July 15, 2016, he was told his request for leave under the Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA) was being denied.²

With respect to claim (1), at the relevant time, Complainant had recently completed a detail as an Acting Auditor. Upon completion of the detail, Complainant's Supervisor informed him that she would like him to relocate to the remaining cubicle in the Finance Office as the other Financial Operations Specialists were sitting in the Finance Office. Complainant agreed to the move but was subsequently out of the office for about a six-week absence. Complainant argued that he should have been allowed to use a room that he had used prior to becoming an Acting Auditor. According to his Supervisor, Complainant had previously sat at a small desk in a storage area, but she denied it was an office.

Regarding claim (2), the Supervisor asserted that she contacted the telephone technician upon learning Complainant's telephone jack was not working when he returned to work after his six-week absence, and the jack was reactivated the same day. Complainant also informed his Supervisor that day that he could not access the Unified Financial Management System. The Supervisor explained that she was told that the System goes into an archived state if an individual fails to log in within 30 days. The Supervisor stated that she emailed Complainant on July 29, 2016, with instructions on how to get his account unlocked. The Supervisor also denied that Complainant lacked access to the "low side terminal." According to the Supervisor, Complainant just had to utilize a switchbox to move between the low side computer and the high side computer because there was only one monitor in the cubicle, just like in the rest of the office.

² The Agency initially dismissed an additional claim regarding a non-selection for untimely EEO Counselor contact. The Commission finds no basis to disturb the Agency's dismissal of that claim. In addition, the Agency dismissed the basis of race discrimination for the entire complaint; however, the EEOC Administrative Judge (AJ) assigned to the matter included race discrimination in her decision.

With regard to claim (3), Complainant stated that the Special Agent in Charge informed him at a meeting that his badge was deactivated during his absence to protect other employees because he was unpredictable. An Assistant Special Agent in Charge who was at the meeting denied that the Special Agent in Charge made the alleged statement. The Special Agent in Charge stated that his decision to deactivate Complainant's badge was based on Complainant's behavior with his Supervisor, Complainant's participation in a road rage incident, and reports that Complainant kept firearms in the trunk of his vehicle. The Special Agent in Charge subsequently reconsidered his decision and removed the restrictions from Complainant's badge access.

For claim (4), Complainant claimed that at a meeting with his Supervisor and the Assistant Special Agent in Charge, he was told that he could not flex, had to call his Supervisor if he was more than 15 minutes late, and that if he were more than five minutes late, he would be charged leave. According to the Supervisor, the meeting was conducted after Complainant arrived half an hour late to work without notifying her, and it was also based on other attendance-related concerns. The Supervisor and the Assistance Special Agent in Charge denied that Complainant was barred from using flex. The Assistant Special Agent in Charge asserted that he informed Complainant that if he was going to be late to work, he needed to contact his Supervisor ahead of time to arrange to flex his time or take leave.

With respect to claims (5-6), Complainant's leave requests for the dates at issue were initially denied because his annual leave and sick leave were exhausted. The Assistant Special Agent in Charge explained that Complainant's FMLA approvals and denials were based on the dates provided by his physician on the FMLA documents. According to the Assistant Special Agent in Charge, Complainant provided an updated FMLA document on August 1, 2016, that covered the period of July 22, 2016 through September 5, 2016. The Assistant Special Agent in Charge stated that he advised Complainant his request was approved for the covered dates, and any dates entered as AWOL during that period would be converted to FMLA.

At the conclusion of the investigation, the Agency provided Complainant with a copy of the report of investigation and notice of his right to request a hearing before an EEOC Administrative Judge (AJ). Complainant timely requested a hearing. The AJ assigned to the case granted summary judgment in favor of the Agency and issued a decision finding that Complainant was not subjected to discrimination or reprisal as alleged.

In her decision, the AJ found that the Agency met its burden in articulating legitimate, nondiscriminatory reasons for its actions and that Complainant failed to provide evidence to corroborate his contentions that the Agency's reasons were pretext intended to hide discriminatory motivation. As a result, the AJ found that Complainant was not subjected to discrimination or reprisal as alleged. The Agency subsequently issued a final order fully adopting the AJ's decision.

ANALYSIS AND FINDINGS

The Commission's regulations allow an AJ to grant summary judgment when he or she finds that there is no genuine issue of material fact. 29 C.F.R. § 1614.109(g). An issue of fact is "genuine" if the evidence is such that a reasonable fact finder could find in favor of the non-moving party. Celotex v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317, 322-23 (1986); Oliver v. Digital Equip. Corp., 846 F.2d 103, 105 (1st Cir. 1988). A fact is "material" if it has the potential to affect the outcome of the case. In rendering this appellate decision, we must scrutinize the AJ's legal and factual conclusions, and the Agency's final order adopting them, de novo. See 29 C.F.R. § 1614.405(a)(stating that a "decision on an appeal from an Agency's final action shall be based on a de novo review..."); see also Equal Employment Opportunity Management Directive for 29 C.F.R. Part 1614 (EEO-MD-110), at Chap. 9, § VI.B. (as revised, August 5, 2015)(providing that an administrative judge's determination to issue a decision without a hearing, and the decision itself, will both be reviewed de novo).

In order to successfully oppose a decision by summary judgment, a complainant must identify, with specificity, facts in dispute either within the record or by producing further supporting evidence and must further establish that such facts are material under applicable law. Such a dispute would indicate that a hearing is necessary to produce evidence to support a finding that the agency was motivated by discriminatory animus. Here, however, Complainant has failed to establish such a dispute. Even construing any inferences raised by the undisputed facts in favor of Complainant, a reasonable fact-finder could not find in Complainant's favor.

Disparate Treatment

To prevail in a disparate treatment claim such as this, Complainant must satisfy the three-part evidentiary scheme fashioned by the Supreme Court in McDonnell Douglas Corp. v. Green, 411 U.S. 792 (1973). He must generally establish a prima facie case by demonstrating that he was subjected to an adverse employment action under circumstances that would support an inference of discrimination. Furnco Constr. Corp. v. Waters, 438 U.S. 567, 576 (1978). Proof of a prima facie case will vary depending on the facts of the particular case. McDonnell Douglas, 411 U.S. at 802 n. 13. To establish a prima facie case of reprisal, Complainant must show that: (1) he engaged in protected EEO activity; (2) the Agency was aware of the protected activity; (3) subsequently, he was subjected to adverse treatment by the Agency; and (4) a nexus exists between his protected activity and the adverse treatment. Whitmire v. Dep't of the Air Force, EEOC Appeal No. 01A00340 (Sept. 25, 2000).

The prima facie inquiry may be dispensed with where the Agency articulated legitimate and nondiscriminatory reasons for its conduct. See U.S. Postal Serv. Bd. of Governors v. Aikens, 460 U.S. 711, 713-17 (1983); Holley v. Dep't of Veterans Affairs, EEOC Request No. 05950842 (Nov. 13, 1997). To ultimately prevail, Complainant must prove, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the Agency's explanation is a pretext for discrimination. Reeves v. Sanderson Plumbing Prods., Inc., 530 U.S. 133 (2000); St. Mary's Honor Ctr. v. Hicks, 509 U.S. 502, 519 (1993); Tex. Dep't of Cmty. Affairs v. Burdine, 450 U.S. 248, 256 (1981); Holley, supra; Pavelka v. Dep't of the Navy, EEOC Request No. 05950351 (Dec. 14, 1995).

We find that the Agency articulated legitimate, nondiscriminatory reasons for the actions under review. The Supervisor indicated with respect to claim (1) that she wanted Complainant to relocate to the remaining cubicle in the Finance Office to join the other Financial Operations Specialists situated in the Finance Office. In terms of claim (2), the Supervisor stated that Complainant's telephone jack was activated the same day that Complainant reported it being inactive. As for Complainant's lack of access to the Unified Financial Management System, the Supervisor stated an individual is locked out if he fails to log in within 30 days. The Supervisor stated that she emailed Complainant on July 29, 2016, with instructions on how to get his account unlocked. With respect to Complainant not having access to the low side terminal, the Supervisor stated Complainant could utilize a switchbox to move between the low side computer and the high side computer.

As for claim (3), the Special Agent in Charge asserted that he deactivated Complainant's badge during his extended absence based on his behavior with his Supervisor, Complainant's participation in a road rage incident, and reports that Complainant kept firearms in the trunk of his vehicle. Complainant's badge was subsequently reactivated. With respect to claim (4), the Supervisor and the Assistance Special Agent in Charge denied that Complainant was precluded from using flex. The Supervisor stated that a meeting was held after Complainant arrived half an hour late to work without notifying her, and the meeting was also based on other attendance-related concerns.

As for claims (5-6), Complainant was initially placed on AWOL because his annual leave and sick leave were exhausted. The Assistant Special Agent in Charge explained that Complainant provided an updated FMLA document on August 1, 2016, that covered the period of July 22, 2016 through September 5, 2016. The Assistant Special Agent in Charge stated that he advised Complainant his FMLA request was approved for the covered dates, and any dates entered as AWOL during that period would be converted to FMLA.

Construing the evidence in the light most favorable to Complainant, the Commission finds no evidence that Complainant's protected classes were a factor in any of the Agency's actions. Complainant's subjective belief that the management actions at issue were the result of discrimination or reprisal is insufficient to prove pretext. At all times, the ultimate burden remains with Complainant to demonstrate by a preponderance of the evidence that the Agency's reasons were not the real reasons and that the Agency acted on the basis of discriminatory or retaliatory animus. Complainant has not carried his burden here. Accordingly, the Commission finds that Complainant has not established that he was subjected to discrimination or reprisal as alleged.

CONCLUSION

The Agency's determination that no discrimination occurred is AFFIRMED.

STATEMENT OF RIGHTS - ON APPEAL
RECONSIDERATION (M0620)

The Commission may, in its discretion, reconsider this appellate decision if the complainant or the agency submits a written request that contains arguments or evidence that tend to establish that:

1. The appellate decision involved a clearly erroneous interpretation of material fact or law; or
2. The appellate decision will have a substantial impact on the policies, practices, or operations of the agency.

Requests for reconsideration must be filed with EEOC's Office of Federal Operations (OFO) within thirty (30) calendar days of receipt of this decision. If the party requesting reconsideration elects to file a statement or brief in support of the request, that statement or brief must be filed together with the request for reconsideration. A party shall have twenty (20) calendar days from receipt of another party's request for reconsideration within which to submit a brief or statement in opposition. See 29 C.F.R. § 1614.405; Equal Employment Opportunity Management Directive for 29 C.F.R. Part 1614 (EEO MD-110), at Chap. 9 § VII.B (Aug. 5, 2015).

Complainant should submit his or her request for reconsideration, and any statement or brief in support of his or her request, via the EEOC Public Portal, which can be found at <https://publicportal.eeoc.gov/Portal/Login.aspx>. Alternatively, complainant can submit his or her request and arguments to the Director, Office of Federal Operations, Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, via regular mail addressed to P.O. Box 77960, Washington, DC 20013, or by certified mail addressed to 131 M Street, NE, Washington, DC 20507. In the absence of a legible postmark, complainant's request to reconsider shall be deemed timely filed if OFO receives it by mail within five days of the expiration of the applicable filing period. See 29 C.F.R. § 1614.604.

An agency's request for reconsideration must be submitted in digital format via the EEOC's Federal Sector EEO Portal (FedSEP). See 29 C.F.R. § 1614.403(g). Either party's request and/or statement or brief in opposition must also include proof of service on the other party, unless complainant files his or her request via the EEOC Public Portal, in which case no proof of service is required.

Failure to file within the 30-day time period will result in dismissal of the party's request for reconsideration as untimely, unless extenuating circumstances prevented the timely filing of the request. Any supporting documentation must be submitted together with the request for reconsideration. The Commission will consider requests for reconsideration filed after the deadline only in very limited circumstances. See 29 C.F.R. § 1614.604(c).

COMPLAINANT'S RIGHT TO FILE A CIVIL ACTION (S0610)

You have the right to file a civil action in an appropriate United States District Court within ninety (90) calendar days from the date that you receive this decision. If you file a civil action, you must name as the defendant in the complaint the person who is the official Agency head or department head, identifying that person by his or her full name and official title.

Failure to do so may result in the dismissal of your case in court. "Agency" or "department" means the national organization, and not the local office, facility or department in which you work. If you file a request to reconsider and also file a civil action, filing a civil action will terminate the administrative processing of your complaint.

RIGHT TO REQUEST COUNSEL (Z0815)

If you want to file a civil action but cannot pay the fees, costs, or security to do so, you may request permission from the court to proceed with the civil action without paying these fees or costs. Similarly, if you cannot afford an attorney to represent you in the civil action, you may request the court to appoint an attorney for you. You must submit the requests for waiver of court costs or appointment of an attorney directly to the court, not the Commission. The court has the sole discretion to grant or deny these types of requests. Such requests do not alter the time limits for filing a civil action (please read the paragraph titled Complainant's Right to File a Civil Action for the specific time limits).

Compliance With Agency Final Action

Pursuant to 29 C.F.R. 1614.504, the Agency's final action that has not been the subject of an appeal to the Commission or a civil action is binding on the Agency. If the Complainant believes that the Agency has failed to comply with the terms of the decision, Complainant shall notify the Agency's EEO Director, in writing, of the alleged noncompliance within 30 days of when the Complainant knew or should have known of the alleged noncompliance. The Agency shall resolve the matter and respond to the Complainant in writing. SUMMARY DECISION

This decision is issued pursuant to 29 C.F.R. Sec. 1614.109(g)(3). On May 15, 2019, the assigned Administrative Judge issued a Notice of Intent to Issue Summary Judgment ("Notice") informing the parties of a determination that the case may be appropriate for summary judgment. The Notice stated the claim in this case, outlined the legal standard for summary judgment, and provided the applicable substantive legal standard. The Notice further described the grounds supporting the determination that the case should be summarily decided. As stated within the Notice, the parties were provided an opportunity to respond. The Notice informed the parties that unless a party demonstrated that there was a genuine issue of material fact in dispute, no hearing would be held in this matter. Complainant filed his response in opposition of a summary decision.

Summary judgment is appropriate because viewing the evidence in the light most favorable to Complainant, the Agency's actions were not based on his protected categories. In his response and as background information, Complainant recounted his unsuccessful bid for the auditor position. He subsequently informed management that he could no longer serve in the role of acting auditor, and he argued "that's when everything changed." See Complainant's May 30, 2019 response. However, management's alleged displeasure with his decision to stop serving as acting auditor was not related to the protected bases identified in the claims in this case and did not preclude summary judgment. The Agency's explanations were not rebutted or otherwise shown to be pretextual. Therefore, for the reasons stated in the Notice of Intent to Issue a Summary Judgment Decision, incorporated by reference into this Decision, summary judgment in favor of the Agency is rendered.

NOTICE OF INTENT TO ISSUE SUMMARY JUDGMENT

After review of the record, it appears there may be no material facts in dispute, and that it may therefore be appropriate to issue a decision without holding a hearing. See 29 C.F.R. §1614.109(g)(3).

The claims addressed here are whether Complainant was subjected to reprisal for prior EEO activity or to discrimination based on race¹ (African-American) when 1) On May 11, 2016, he was moved from an office to a cubicle; 2) On June 27, 2016, following a six-week absence, he discovered his desk did not have a telephone jack, he did not have access to the "low side terminal," and management had deactivated his access to financial systems; 3) On or around June 27, 2016, he was informed his badge was deactivated during his absence to protect other employees insofar as he was "unpredictable," and it was insinuated that he was a "threat"; 4) On June 29, 2016, he was told he could not "flex," had to call his supervisor if he was more than fifteen minutes late, and that if he were more than five minutes late, he would be charged leave; 5) On July² 11, July 25, and July 27, 2016, he was told he was being placed in absent without leave (AWOL) status; and, 6) On July 15, 2016, he was told his request for leave under the Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA) was being denied.

Legal Standards for Summary Decision.

Summary judgment is appropriate if the pleadings, answers to interrogatories, admissions, affidavits and other evidence establish no genuine issue as to any material fact, and the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. See 29 C.F.R. §1614.109(g); see also Murphy v. Department of the Army, EEOC Appeal No. 01A04099 (July 11, 2003) (noting that the regulation governing decisions without a hearing is modeled after the Federal Rules of

¹ The basis of race was dismissed by the Agency, and it is added here for purposes of this notice.

Civil Procedure, Rule 56). Only disputes over facts that might affect the outcome of the suit under governing law, and not irrelevant or unnecessary factual disputes, will preclude the entry of summary judgment. See Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 248 (1986). Material factual disputes include credibility disputes where two or more people have different versions of the relevant event, and the determination of that credibility dispute will affect the outcome of the case. There is no genuine issue of material fact if the relevant evidence in the record, taken indicates that a reasonable fact-finder could not return a verdict for the party opposing summary judgment. Id.

When opposing a properly supported motion for summary judgment, a party must respond with specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue of material fact and that the moving party is not entitled to judgment as a matter of law. See Anderson, 477 U.S. at 250. An opposing party may not rest upon mere allegations or denials in the pleadings or upon conclusory statements in affidavits; rather, s/he must go beyond the pleadings and support her/his contentions with proper documentary evidence. See Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317, 324 (1986). To defeat summary judgment, a party must show that there is sufficient material evidence supporting the claimed factual dispute to require a fact finder to resolve the parties' differing versions of the truth at trial. Anderson, 477 U.S. at 248-49. Uncorroborated accusations are not enough to defeat summary judgment. Liles-Walker v. United States Postal Service, EEOC Appeal No. 0120090431 (July 26, 2012).

Applicable Law about Substance of Case.

A circumstantial claim of discriminatory treatment based on a protected status may be examined under the three-part analysis first enunciated in McDonnell Douglas Corporation v. Green, 411 U.S. 792 (1973). A complainant first establishes a prima facie case of discrimination by presenting facts that, if unexplained, reasonably give rise to an inference of discrimination. i.e., that a prohibited consideration was a factor in the adverse action. McDonnell Douglas, 411 U.S. at 802; Furnco Construction Corp. v. Waters, 438 U.S. 567 (1978). The burden then shifts to the agency to articulate a legitimate, nondiscriminatory reason for its actions. Texas Department of Community Affairs v. Burdine, 450 U.S. 248, 253 (1981). Complainant must then offer proof that the Agency's explanation is pretextual. Reeves v. Sanderson Plumbing Prods., Inc., 530 U.S. 133 (2000); St. Mary's Honor Ctr. v. Hicks, 509 U.S. 502, 519 (1993).

Complainant bears the burden to prove that the conduct was taken because of his/her protected classes. Concerning alleged actions by management, if a complainant fails to raise a genuine issue of material fact as to the existence of discriminatory intent on the part the responsible management officials, "no further inquiry would be necessary as to whether the incidents complained of ... constitute separate acts of discrimination under disparate treatment theory." Nicki D. v. Dep't of Veterans Affairs, EEOC Appeal No. 0120133247 (Oct. 15, 2015).

In order to establish a prima facie case of disparate treatment discrimination, the evidence should show that: (1) the complainant is a member of the protected class; (2) the employer took a tangible employment action against her; and (3) the circumstances of the employer's treatment of complainant give rise to an inference of discrimination, such as where the employer treats a similarly situated person who is not a member of a complainant's protected class more favorably than the employer treated the complainant. See Wiley v. US. Postal Service, EEOC App. No. 0120130121 (Mar. 20, 2013). Generally, for comparative evidence relating to other employees to be considered relevant for purposes of establishing prima facie of discrimination, all relevant aspects of the employees' work situation must be identical or nearly identical. i.e., that the employees report to the same supervisor, perform the same job function, and work during the same time periods. See Pohlhaus v. Dep't of Navy, EEOC Appeal 0120113173 (April 16, 2013). Differentiating or mitigating circumstances that would distinguish employee's situations should be considered. Cf., White v. Department of Defense, EEOC Appeal No. 01A22115 (June 12, 2003).

To establish a prima facie case of reprisal, a complainant must show (1) she participated in protected activity; (2) the agency official was aware of the protected activity; (3) there was subsequent adverse action taken against a complainant; and (4) a causal link exists between the protected activity and the adverse treatment. Beckl P. v U.S. Dep't of State, EEOC Appeal No. 0120152856 (March 24, 2016). As in the case of alleged discriminatory actions, an employer may "proffer a legitimate, non-retaliatory reason for the challenged actions." EEOC Enforcement Guidance on Retaliation and Related Issues. EEOC Notice 915.004, at II.

As in the case of alleged discriminatory treatment or actions, an employer may "proffer a legitimate, non-retaliatory reason for the challenged actions." EEOC Enforcement Guidance on Retaliation and Related Issues. EEOC Notice 915.004, at II.

Where the agency has articulated a legitimate, nondiscriminatory reason for the action at issue, the factual inquiry can proceed directly to the third step of the McDonnell Douglas analysis, the ultimate issue of whether complainant has shown by a preponderance of the evidence that the agency's actions were motivated by discrimination based on retaliation. See U.S. Postal Service Board of Governors v. Aikens, 460 U.S. 711, 713-714 (1983); Hernandez v. Department of Transportation, EEOC Request No. 05900159 (June 28, 1990); Peterson v. Department of Health and Human Services, EEOC Request No. 05900467 (June 8, 1990); Washington v. Department of the Navy, EEOC Petition No. 03900056 (May 31, 1990).

Grounds for Summary Judgment.

Complainant alleged reprisal by the Agency. He also believed that the Agency was motivated by race. As covered below, the Agency's explanation showed the absence of a causal connection between Complainant's membership in a protected category and the disputed actions.

Complainant was a Financial Operations Specialist (FOS). In allegation 1, Complainant alleged that his move from an office to a cubicle was discriminatory or retaliatory. Supervisor Sandra Hollingshead explained that Complainant had been serving in the Acting Auditor role. In May 2016, after that role ended, she met with Complainant about his return to the finance office. During this conversation, she also told Complainant that she would like him to relocate to the remaining cubicle desk in the finance office, which was the first one inside the door to that work area. The other FOS employees were already sitting together in the finance office. During that meeting, Complainant responded to Supervisor Hollingshead that he would move. Complainant was subsequently out of the office for about a six-week absence.

Complainant argued that there was a room that he had used before his stint as Acting Auditor, and he posited that the Agency could have let him use that space when he returned to finance. Supervisor Hollingshead explained that while the finance office was undergoing construction, Complainant had sat at a small desk in a storage area, but, she denied it was an office. Supervisor Hollingshead also denied that the door partially blocked Complainant's cubicle as the door opened outward towards the hallway.

Following Complainant's six-week absence, Complainant returned to work on June 27th. In allegation 2, Complainant alleged discovered his new desk did not have a telephone jack, he did not have access to the "low side terminal," and management had deactivated his access to financial systems. Supervisor Hollingshead recalled that when Complainant returned to work, he advised her that his telephone was not working in the cubicle. Once alerted to this, Supervisor Hollingshead contacted the telephone technician who reactivated the jack that same day. Also, on the same date, he advised Supervisor Hollingshead that he could not access the Unified Financial Management System (UFMS). She contacted AskFinance who advised that individual access to UFMS goes into an archive state if an individual fails to log in within thirty days. On June 29th, Supervisor Hollingshead emailed Complainant with instructions on what he needed to do to get his account unlocked. IF Hollingshead transcript, page 5. Supervisor Hollingshead denied that Complainant did not have access to the "low side terminal." Instead, she explained that Complainant "just had to utilize a switchbox to move between the low side computer and the high side computer because there was only one monitor in the cubicle, just like the rest of the office." She clarified that Complainant still would have been able to perform his duties as an FOS without the "low side" because the financial work is done on the "high side." IF Hollingshead transcript, page 5.

In allegation 3, Complainant claimed that during a meeting, SAC Thomas Class informed him his badge was deactivated during his absence to protect other employees insofar as he was "unpredictable." Complainant interpreted that as an insinuation that he was a "threat." ASAC Niambi Tillman was at this meeting, and she denied hearing SAC Class make the alleged statement. SAC Class made the decision to temporarily deactivate Complainant's badge during his extended absence. He explained his decision was based on factors that included Complainant's behavior with Supervisor Hollingshead, his participation in a road rage incident, and reports that Complainant maintained firearms in the trunk of his vehicle. SAC Class reconsidered his decision, and he removed restrictions from Complainant's badge access. IF Class transcript.

On June 29th Complainant met with Supervisor Hollingshead and ASAC Tillman. In allegation 4, Complainant alleged being told that he could not "flex," had to call his supervisor if he was more than fifteen minutes late, and, that if he were more than five minutes late, he would be charged leave. Supervisor Hollingshead stated that this meeting was after Complainant arrived half an hour late for work without notifying her, and it was also based on other attendance-related concerns. ASAC Tillman and Supervisor Hollingshead denied that Complainant was banned from using "flex." Instead, ASAC Tillman informed Complainant that, if he was going to be late to work, he needed to contact Supervisor Hollingshead ahead of time to arrange to flex his time or take leave. IF Ex. 10.

Allegations 5 and 6, were related and will be covered together. Complainant's leave for the listed dates was initially denied because his annual and sick leave was exhausted. ASAC Tillman advised that on August 1, 2016, Complainant provided an updated FMLA document (WF-380-E) which covered the period of July 22 through September 5, 2016. On August 1, 2016, ASAC Tillman advised Complainant his request was approved for the covered dates, and any dates entered as AWOL during that period would be converted to FMLA. IF Exs. 11 & 18. ASAC Tillman explained that Complainant's FMLA approvals and denials were based on the dates provided by his doctor on the WH-380-E forms.

The parties' responses should comply with the instructions below. Since the Agency met its burden of explaining its actions, the burden shifts to Complainant to show that the Agency's actions were motivated by reprisal. In establishing pretext, complainant cannot rely on conclusory assertions and suspicions that are not supported in the record. Complainant v. Department of Defense, EEOC Appeal No. 0120131035 (April 24, 2015). Rather, complainant must proffer evidence to corroborate her contentions that the agency's reason was a pretext for reprisal. Morris v. United States Postal Service, EEOC Appeal No. 01A32685 (March 25, 2004).

Content of the Parties' Responses.

When opposing summary judgment, a party must respond with specific facts showing that there is a genuine dispute as to a material fact and that the other party is not entitled to judgment as a matter of law. Anderson, 477 U.S. at 250. Unless a party demonstrates that there is a genuine issue of material fact in dispute, no hearing will be held in this matter.

If a party opposes summary judgment, he/she may not rely on mere allegations, speculation, conclusory statements, or denials. The party should cite to specific evidence contained in the report of investigation which creates a factual dispute regarding a material issue in the case. If not already contained in the report of investigation, the party should also include any relevant documentary evidence or witness statements, or other supporting materials and provide a clear and specific statement of their relevance. Where information is compiled from agency records, provide a declaration from the person preparing the evidence as to the method used to prepare it. If a party plans to call witnesses to testify in support of claims or defenses, the party should obtain written statements from them, and submit these statements in support of the argument against summary judgment.

Time for Responses.

Within fifteen days, the parties' responses shall be submitted by electronic mail to v.cuadra-efilebox@eoc.gov, and, each side must copy the opposing party on the email. After reviewing the parties' responses and examining the record, the Administrative Judge will determine whether summary judgment is appropriate and issue a decision or an order as appropriate.

It is so ORDERED.

Appeal No. 2020000224

Hearing No. 450-2019-00104X

Agency No. FBI201800162

DECISION

On December 18, 2019, Complainant filed an appeal with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC or Commission), pursuant to 29 C.F.R. § 1614.403(a), from the Agency's July 15, 2019 final order concerning his equal employment opportunity (EEO) complaint. He alleged employment discrimination in violation of Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (Title VII), as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 2000e et seq., and Section 501 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (Rehabilitation Act), as amended, 29 U.S.C. § 791 et seq.

BACKGROUND

At the time of events giving rise to this complaint, Complainant was a Financial Operations Specialist with the Agency's Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) Finance Office in Dallas, Texas.

On April 17, 2018, Complainant filed a formal complaint alleging that the Agency subjected him to discrimination on the bases of disability (disabled veteran) and reprisal for prior protected EEO activity (prior EEO complaint filed in April 2016) when:

1. on March 2, 2018, he discovered he had been placed in an Absent Without Leave status, effective December of 2017;

2. management officials refused to respond to requests from the Department of Veterans Affairs, to verify his employment for purposes of his application for disability benefits; and
3. on March 7, 2018, Complainant was presented with a letter proposing his removal for excessive absences.

Claims 1 and 3 – AWOL and Proposal to Remove

It is undisputed that Complainant stopped reporting to work as of June 2016 for medical reasons and, after exhausting his available leave, was in a Leave Without Pay (LWOP) status.

On November 27, 2017, Complainant's supervisor called Complainant and advised him that he needed to report back to work on December 11, 2017, or he would be charged Absence without Leave (AWOL). The record shows that, by December 11, 2017, Complainant had exhausted all of his available leave, including his Family & Medical Leave Act (FMLA) leave. His supervisor also informed Complainant that the Department of Labor had denied his worker's compensation claims. Consequently, Complainant was not eligible to continue to receive LWOP under the worker's compensation program.

Despite the notifications from his supervisor, Complainant believed that he was still being afforded Leave without Pay (LWOP). However, on March 2, 2018, Complainant averred that he learned for the first time that he had been placed on AWOL status, effective December 2017.

On March 7, 2018, Complainant was issued a letter proposing to remove him from the Agency's rolls. The cited reason was excessive absences from work. It appears from the record that Complainant retired prior to being removed.

Claim 2 - Officials refused to respond to request for verification of Complainant's employment

On February 14, 2018, Complainant notified the Unit Chief for the Human Resources Division that the Department of Veterans Affairs needed verification of Complainant's employment for purposes of Complainant's application for disability benefits. The Unit Chief sent Complainant's VA verification form to the head of the Human Resources Call Center to assist Complainant. After Complainant's separation on May 3, 2018, the Unit Chief advised Complainant that because Complainant was separated from the Agency, the paperwork that Complainant submitted in June of 2018 for retirement disability had to be filed directly with the Office of Personnel Management.

At the conclusion of the investigation, the Agency provided Complainant with a copy of the report of investigation and notice of his right to request a hearing before a United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission Administrative Judge (AJ). Complainant timely requested a hearing.

However, the AJ determined sua sponte that the complaint did not warrant a hearing and, over Complainant's objections, issued a decision by summary judgment in favor of the Agency on June 11, 2019. In reaching the decision finding no discrimination regarding his 2018 termination for excessive absences, the AJ stated that it was undisputed that Complainant had been off work since June 2016, with no indication that Complainant would be able to resume the duties of his Financial Operations Specialist position.

The Agency subsequently issued a final order adopting the AJ's finding that Complainant failed to prove that the Agency subjected him to discrimination as alleged.

This appeal followed.²

ANALYSIS AND FINDINGS

As this is an appeal from a decision issued without a hearing, pursuant to 29 C.F.R. § 1614.110(b), the Agency's decision is subject to de novo review by the Commission. 29 C.F.R. § 1614.405(a). See Equal Employment Opportunity Management Directive for 29 C.F.R. Part 1614, at Chapter 9, § VI.A. (Aug. 5, 2015) (explaining that the de novo standard of review "requires that the Commission examine the record without regard to the factual and legal determinations of the previous decision maker," and that EEOC "review the documents, statements, and testimony of record, including any timely and relevant submissions of the parties, and . . . issue its decision based on the Commission's own assessment of the record and its interpretation of the law").

We carefully reviewed the record and find that it is adequately developed. To successfully oppose a decision without a hearing, Complainant must identify material facts of record that are in dispute or present further material evidence establishing facts in dispute. Such a dispute would indicate that a hearing is necessary to produce evidence to support a finding that the agency was motivated by discriminatory animus. Here, however, Complainant has failed to establish such a dispute and has not identified any discovery that would be necessary to cure any asserted deficiencies in the record.

A claim of disparate treatment is examined under the three-part analysis first enunciated in McDonnell Douglas Corporation v. Green, 411 U.S. 792 (1973). For Complainant to prevail, she must first establish a prima facie case of discrimination by presenting facts that, if unexplained, reasonably give rise to an inference of discrimination, i.e., that a prohibited consideration was a factor in the adverse employment action. See McDonnell Douglas, 411 U.S. at 802. The burden then shifts to the agency to articulate a legitimate, nondiscriminatory reason for its actions. See Texas Dep't of Community Affairs v. Burdine, 450 U.S. 248, 253 (1981). To ultimately prevail, Complainant must prove, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the Agency's explanation is a pretext for discrimination. Reeves v. Sanderson Plumbing Products, Inc., 530 U.S. 133, 143 (2000); St. Mary's Honor Center v. Hicks, 509 U.S. 502, 519 (1993); Burdine, 450 U.S. at 256.

This established order of analysis in discrimination cases, in which the first step normally consists of determining the existence of a prima facie case, need not be followed in all cases. Where the agency has articulated a legitimate, nondiscriminatory reason for the personnel action at issue, the factual inquiry can proceed directly to the third step of the McDonnell Douglas analysis, the ultimate issue of whether complainant has shown by a preponderance of the evidence that the agency's actions were motivated by discrimination. See U.S. Postal Service Board of Governors v. Aikens, 460 U.S. 711, 713-714 (1983); Hernandez v. Dep't of Transportation, EEOC Request No. 05900159 (June 28, 1990); Peterson v. Dep't of Health and Human Services, EEOC Request No. 05900467 (June 8, 1990); Washington v. Dep't of the Navy, EEOC Petition No. 03900056 (May 31, 1990).

Even construing any inferences raised by the undisputed facts in favor of Complainant, a reasonable fact-finder could not find in Complainant's favor on any of the alleged claims. We will assume, without finding, that Complainant is an individual with a disability, in this case.³ However, the undisputed record shows that Complainant voluntarily "stepped down" from his duties and never reported back to work. Once his leave was exhausted, including that under the FMLA, and his workers' compensation claim denied, management could no longer provide him with LWOP, so he was asked to return to work or be recorded as AWOL. The Agency's articulated reason for its actions was Complainant refusal to return to work resulting in the excessive absences with no end in sight. There is no evidence that would show that the stated reason was a pretext for unlawful discrimination. Regarding the paperwork verification of Complainant's employment to support his application for disability benefits it appears that any delay was the result of bureaucratic red tape and not the result of any discriminatory or retaliatory animus.

Finally, to the extent that Complainant wishes to raise his entitlement to continued employment or additional benefits based on his status as a disabled veteran, we note that the claim is outside of the scope of the laws covered by this Commission.

CONCLUSION

For these reasons, we AFFIRM the Agency's Final Order.

³ Complainant has not asserted that there was an accommodation that would have effectively allowed him to perform the full range of the essential functions of his position.

STATEMENT OF RIGHTS - ON APPEAL
RECONSIDERATION (M0620)

The Commission may, in its discretion, reconsider this appellate decision if the complainant or the agency submits a written request that contains arguments or evidence that tend to establish that:

1. The appellate decision involved a clearly erroneous interpretation of material fact or law; or
2. The appellate decision will have a substantial impact on the policies, practices, or operations of the agency.

Requests for reconsideration must be filed with EEOC's Office of Federal Operations (OFO) within thirty (30) calendar days of receipt of this decision. If the party requesting reconsideration elects to file a statement or brief in support of the request, that statement or brief must be filed together with the request for reconsideration. A party shall have twenty (20) calendar days from receipt of another party's request for reconsideration within which to submit a brief or statement in opposition. See 29 C.F.R. § 1614.405; Equal Employment Opportunity Management Directive for 29 C.F.R. Part 1614 (EEO MD-110), at Chap. 9 § VII.B (Aug. 5, 2015).

Complainant should submit his or her request for reconsideration, and any statement or brief in support of his or her request, via the EEOC Public Portal, which can be found at <https://publicportal.eeoc.gov/Portal/Login.aspx>.

Alternatively, complainant can submit his or her request and arguments to the Director, Office of Federal Operations, Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, via regular mail addressed to P.O. Box 77960, Washington, DC 20013, or by certified mail addressed to 131 M Street, NE, Washington, DC 20507. In the absence of a legible postmark, complainant's request to reconsider shall be deemed timely filed if OFO receives it by mail within five days of the expiration of the applicable filing period. See 29 C.F.R. § 1614.604.

An agency's request for reconsideration must be submitted in digital format via the EEOC's Federal Sector EEO Portal (FedSEP). See 29 C.F.R. § 1614.403(g). Either party's request and/or statement or brief in opposition must also include proof of service on the other party, unless complainant files his or her request via the EEOC Public Portal, in which case no proof of service is required.

Failure to file within the 30-day time period will result in dismissal of the party's request for reconsideration as untimely, unless extenuating circumstances prevented the timely filing of the request. Any supporting documentation must be submitted together with the request for reconsideration. The Commission will consider requests for reconsideration filed after the deadline only in very limited circumstances. See 29 C.F.R. § 1614.604(c).

COMPLAINANT'S RIGHT TO FILE A CIVIL ACTION (S0610)

You have the right to file a civil action in an appropriate United States District Court within ninety (90) calendar days from the date that you receive this decision. If you file a civil action, you must name as the defendant in the complaint the person who is the official Agency head or department head, identifying that person by his or her full name and official title. Failure to do so may result in the dismissal of your case in court. "Agency" or "department" means the national organization, and not the local office, facility or department in which you work. If you file a request to reconsider and also file a civil action, filing a civil action will terminate the administrative processing of your complaint.

RIGHT TO REQUEST COUNSEL (Z0815)

If you want to file a civil action but cannot pay the fees, costs, or security to do so, you may request permission from the court to proceed with the civil action without paying these fees or costs. Similarly, if you cannot afford an attorney to represent you in the civil action, you may request the court to appoint an attorney for you. You must submit the requests for waiver of court costs or appointment of an attorney directly to the court, not the Commission. The court has the sole discretion to grant or deny these types of requests. Such requests do not alter the time limits for filing a civil action (please read the paragraph titled Complainant's Right to File a Civil Action for the specific time limits).

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE FINAL ORDER

Based on a review of the record, the Department of Justice accepts the Administrative Judge's decision that the record did not support a finding that complainant was subjected to discrimination or a hostile work environment on the basis of disability or for having engaged in EEO activity when he was placed on Absent Without Leave status, when officials allegedly refused to respond to requests from the Department of Veterans Affairs verifying his employment, or when he was issued a letter proposing his dismissal from employment with the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE MEMORANDUM

JUL 13 2019

Explaining the Final Order in the matter of

Archie Butler v. Federal Bureau of Investigation

Section 1614.110 of 29 C.F.R. provides that the Department of Justice shall issue a final order accepting or rejecting an Administrative Judge's (AJ) decision. An AJ's decision is accepted if it is supported by substantial evidence. 29 C.F.R. § 1614.405(a). In this case, the Department of Justice accepts the AJ's decision that the record did not support a finding that complainant was subjected to discrimination or a hostile work environment on the basis of disability or having engaged in EEO activity.

Complainant alleged that he was subjected to discrimination and/or a hostile work environment on the basis of disability and having engaged in EEO activity when:

1. on March 2, 2018, he discovered he had been placed in an Absent Without Leave (AWOL) status effective December 2017;
2. officials refused to respond to requests from the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) verifying his employment for purposes of his application for disability benefits; and
3. on March 7, 2018, he was presented with a letter proposing his removal from the rolls of the FBI.

Record of Investigation (ROI) at 50-51.

On May 13, 2019, the AJ, sua sponte, issued a Notice of Intent to Issue Summary Judgment (AJ's Notice), inviting the parties to submit briefs responding to her assertion that the case was ripe for a summary decision. In the Notice, the AJ asserted that the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI)

"explanation[s] showed the absence of a causal connection between Complainant's membership in a protected category and the disputed actions."

With regard to issue 1, the AJ said that the record showed that complainant had exhausted all available leave, "including FMLA-protected leave," and that he was not "eligible to receive" Leave Without Pay (LWOP) "under worker's compensation." Furthermore, the AJ said, the record showed that complainant's supervisor warned him that he would be placed on AWOL if he did not return to work by December 11, 2017, and that he did not return to work by that date. AJ's Notice at 3-4. The record shows that complainant believed that he was physically incapable of working, noting that he "was declared 100% unemployable, permanent[ly] and totally disabled on December 7, 2017[,] by the VA," and that he was seeking disability retirement during the time in question. ROI at 66, 69.

With regard to issue 2, the AJ said that the record showed that officials acted to provide the VA with verification of complainant's FBI employment, but, due to his subsequent dismissal from employment with FBI, he had to have his disability retirement paperwork completed by the Office of Personnel Management. AJ's Notice at 4. The record shows that complainant subsequently was "medically retired through the VA adjudication process..." ROI at 71.

With regard to issue 3, the AJ said that the record showed that complainant's March 2018 proposed dismissal from employment with FBI was premised on his "excessive absences," and that it was undisputed that he had been absent from work since June 2016. The AJ said that the record contained "no evidence to support that [FBI] was required to continue to maintain Complainant's position open for him under these circumstances and with no indication that Complainant would be able to resume the duties of his ... position." AJ's Notice at 4.

As FBI had "met its burden of explaining its actions," the AJ said, complainant's response to the Notice needed to demonstrate that FBI's explanations were pretext meant to hide the true discriminatory¹ or retaliatory motive. AJ's Notice at ¹ The AJ wrote, "Since the Agency met its burden of explaining its actions, the burden shifts to Complainant to show that the Agency's actions were motivated by reprisal." It is assumed that, in this sentence, the AJ inadvertently mentioned only FEO reprisal, and omitted disability discrimination. See AJ's Notice at 4.

4. FBI did not respond to the AJ's Notice. See AJ's Summary Decision.

In complainant's responses² to the AJ's Notice, he stated that, "because of [his] Disabled Veteran status, it was discriminatory to remove or attempt to remove [him] from federal service," given the existence of "federal regulations pertaining to the treatment of Disabled veterans to include all Disabled persons." See Complainant's Responses to Notice of Intent to Issue Summary Judgment (Complainant's Responses). The record shows that complainant believed that Executive Order 5396 and Worker's Compensation law required FBI to offer him LWOP and prevented it from placing him on AWOL or taking disciplinary action against him for his absences. See, e.g., ROI at 67. In his Responses, complainant also said that he believed that officials' alleged harassment was "an extension of the Racial Discrimination and Reprisal seen in" his prior EEO complaint, filed in 2016. That complaint appears to have involved complainant's non-selection for an FBI Auditor position due to "Non-certification of 'Accounting' education credentials." At the time of his application, complainant was serving as Acting Auditor, and he attempted to step down from that role after being deemed ineligible for selection into a permanent Auditor position. The vast majority of complainant's Responses to the Notice involved description of the events of that prior complaint, and he failed to address in any detail any of the issues in the current complaint, let alone those raised by the AJ in her Notice. See Complainant's Responses.

In her brief Summary Decision, the AJ found that, viewing the evidence in the light most favorable to complainant, the record showed that FBI's "actions were not based on his protected categories." The AJ said that, while disability is a protected basis in EEO law, "Disabled Veteran" is not. The AJ also said that complainant's Responses "alleged reprisal because he declin[ed] to continue to work in an auditor role" but that "[t]his argument was not related to his protected bases (disability and reprisal for prior EEO activity) and did not preclude summary judgment." The AJ found that FBI's non-discriminatory and non-retaliatory "explanations were not rebutted [by complainant,] or otherwise shown to be pretextual." AJ's Summary Decision.

Substantial evidence supports the AJ's finding that the record did not establish that he was subjected to discrimination or a hostile work environment on the basis of disability or EEO activity. While not sufficiently explained in the AJ's very brief Summary Decision or Notice, the record shows that complainant's assertion that his treatment by officials was the product of disability discrimination appears based solely on his belief that officials' actions against him should have been precluded by various legal provisions protecting Disabled Veterans. Complainant did not allege that any officials harbored discriminatory animus towards those with disabilities, nor did he provide any evidence that those without disabilities were treated better by officials than he was. Thus, even if various legal provisions did protect him as a Disabled Veteran, he did not allege that officials' failure to abide by those provisions were the product of animus towards those with disabilities.³ As application of Executive Order 5396 and Worker's Compensation law are outside of the purview of EEO adjudicators - including the AJ and this Office - complainant's EEO complaint cannot stand solely on the alleged fact that officials failed to abide by those legal provisions.

With regard to retaliation, the AJ is incorrect that complainant's Responses failed to allege reprisal related to prior EEO activity, as they clearly state that he filed an EEO complaint about the Auditor position and asserted that his treatment in this complaint was a result of that prior EEO activity. While complainant's retaliation claim was based on prior EEO activity, the record is devoid of any information, beyond complainant's conclusory assertions, connecting that EEO activity to the events at issue here. As such, the record does not support complainant's claim of EEO retaliation, and the claim was properly decided on summary judgment.

Substantial evidence supports the AJ's conclusion that officials provided non-discriminatory and non-retaliatory explanations for its actions, and that nothing in the record suggests that officials' explanations were pretext meant to hide discriminatory or retaliatory intent.

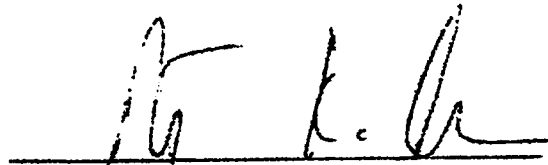

For the above reasons, substantial evidence supports the AJ's decision. As such, the Department of Justice accepts the ³ Complainant did not claim to have requested a reasonable accommodation related to these events, and the AJ did not address the matter of accommodations. It is noted that complainant, by his own admission, was, and would remain, unable to work, and that he thus would not be entitled to any accommodations under the Rehabilitation Act. See, e.g., Fulman v. U.S. Postal Serv., EEOC DOC 0120103160 at *2 (May 22, 2013) (finding that the complainant failed to establish that she was denied a reasonable accommodation when the record showed that she "was unable to work any job").

SUMMARY DECISION

This decision is issued pursuant to 29 C.F.R. Sec. 1614.109(g)(3). On May 15, 2019, the assigned Administrative Judge issued a Notice of Intent to Issue Summary Judgment ("Notice") informing the parties of a determination that the case may be appropriate for summary judgment. The Notice stated the claim in this case, outlined the legal standard for summary judgment, and provided the applicable substantive legal standard. The Notice further described the grounds supporting the determination that the case should be summarily decided. As stated within the Notice, the parties were provided an opportunity to respond. The Notice informed the parties that unless a party demonstrated that there was a genuine issue of material fact in dispute, no hearing would be held in this matter. Complainant filed his response in opposition of a summary decision.

Summary judgment is appropriate because viewing the evidence in the light most favorable to Complainant, the Agency's actions were not based on his protected categories. In his response, Complainant argued that the Agency discriminated against him based on his "Disabled Veteran" status. While disability is covered basis, Veteran status is not covered by the laws enforced by this forum. Additionally, Complainant's response referred to alleged reprisal because he declining to continue to work in an auditor role. This argument was not related to his protected bases (disability and reprisal for prior EEO activity) and did not preclude summary judgment. The Agency's explanations were not rebutted or otherwise shown to be pretextual. Therefore, for the reasons stated in the Notice of Intent to Issue a Summary Judgment Decision, incorporated by reference into this Decision, summary judgment in favor of the Agency is rendered.

NOTICE OF INTENT TO ISSUE SUMMARY JUDGMENT

After review of the record, it appears there may be no material facts in dispute, and that it may therefore be appropriate to issue a decision without holding a hearing. See 29 C.F.R. §1614.109(g)(3).

The accepted and investigated claims were whether Complainant was discriminated against and subjected to hostile work environment harassment based on disability (physical and mental) and reprisal for prior EEO activity when: 1. On March 2, 2018, he discovered he had been placed in an Absent Without Leave status effective December 2017; 2. Officials have refused to respond to requests from the Department of Veterans Affairs verifying his employment for purposes of his application for disability benefits, and 3. On March 7, 2018, he was presented with a letter proposing his removal from the rolls of the FBI.

Legal Standards for Summary Decision.

Summary judgment is appropriate if the pleadings, answers to interrogatories, admissions, affidavits and other evidence establish no genuine issue as to any material fact, and the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. See 29 C.F.R. §1614.109(g); see also Murphy v. Department of the Army, EEOC Appeal No. 01A04099 (July 11, 2003) (noting that the regulation governing decisions without a hearing is modeled after the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 56). Only disputes over facts that might affect the outcome of the suit under governing law, and not irrelevant or unnecessary factual disputes, will preclude the entry of summary judgment. See Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 248 (1986). Material factual disputes include credibility disputes where two or more people have different versions of the relevant event, and the determination of that credibility dispute will affect the outcome of the case. There is no genuine issue of material fact if the relevant evidence in the record, taken indicates that a reasonable fact-finder could not return a verdict for the party opposing summary judgment. Id.

When opposing a properly supported motion for summary judgment, a party must respond with specific facts showing that there is a genuine issue of material fact and that the moving party is not entitled to judgment as a matter of law. See Anderson, 477 U.S. at 250. An opposing party may not rest upon mere allegations or denials in the pleadings or upon conclusory statements in affidavits; rather, s/he must go beyond the pleadings and support her/his contentions with proper documentary evidence. See Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317, 324 (1986). To defeat summary judgment, a party must show that there is sufficient material evidence supporting the claimed factual dispute to require a fact finder to resolve the parties' differing versions of the truth at trial. Anderson, 477 U.S. at 248-49. Uncorroborated accusations are not enough to defeat summary judgment. Liles-Walker v. United States Postal Service, EEOC Appeal No. 0120090431 (July 26, 2012).

Rehabilitation Act.

Pursuant to the Rehabilitation Act Amendments of 1992, the employment standards of the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) apply to all non-affirmative action employment discrimination claims filed by federal applicants or employees with disabilities under section 501 of the Rehabilitation Act. See Lorenzo v. U.S. Postal Serv., EEOC Appeal No. 01973337 (May 25, 2000) at n.3. Moreover, the ADA Amendments Act of 2008 ("ADAAA"), which took effect on January 1, 2009, expressly applies to the Rehabilitation Act. Pub. L. No. 110-325, 122 Stat. 3553 (2008) at § 7.

Applicable Law about Substance of Case.

A circumstantial claim of discriminatory treatment based on a protected status may be examined under the three-part analysis first enunciated in McDonnell Douglas Corporation v. Green, 411 U.S. 792 (1973). A complainant first establishes a prima facie case of discrimination by presenting facts that, if unexplained, reasonably give rise to an inference of discrimination, i.e., that a prohibited consideration was a factor in the adverse action. McDonnell Douglas, 411 U.S. at 802; Furnco Construction Corp. v. Waters, 438 U.S. 567 (1978). The burden then shifts to the agency to articulate a legitimate, nondiscriminatory reason for its actions. Texas Department of Community Affairs v. Burdine, 450 U.S. 248, 253 (1981). Complainant must then offer proof that the Agency's explanation is pretextual. Reeves v. Sanderson Plumbing Prods., Inc., 530 U.S. 133 (2000); St. Mary's Honor Ctr. v. Hicks, 509 U.S. 502, 519 (1993).

Complainant bears the burden to prove that the conduct was taken because of his/her protected classes. Concerning alleged actions by management, if a complainant fails to raise a genuine issue of material fact as to the existence of discriminatory intent on the part the responsible management officials, "no further inquiry would be necessary as to whether the incidents complained of ... constitute separate acts of discrimination under disparate treatment theory." Nicki D. v. Dep't of Veterans Affairs, EEOC Appeal No. 0120133247 (Oct. 15, 2015).

In order to establish a prima facie case of disparate treatment discrimination, the evidence should show that: (1) the complainant is a member of the protected class; (2) the employer took a tangible employment action against her; and (3) the circumstances of the employer's treatment of complainant give rise to an inference of discrimination, such as where the employer treats a similarly situated person who is not a member of a complainant's protected class more favorably than the employer treated the complainant. See Wiley v. U.S. Postal Service, EEOC App. No. 0120130121 (Mar. 20, 2013). Generally, for comparative evidence relating to other employees to be considered relevant for purposes of establishing prima facie of discrimination, all relevant aspects of the employees' work situation must be identical or nearly identical, i.e., that the employees report to the same supervisor, perform the same job function, and work during the same time periods. See Pohlhaus v. Dep't of Navy, EEOC Appeal 0120113173 (April 16, 2013). Differentiating or mitigating circumstances that would distinguish employee's situations should be considered. Cf. White v. Department of Defense, EEOC Appeal No. 01A22115 (June 12, 2003).

To establish a prima facie case of reprisal, a complainant must show (1) she participated in protected activity; (2) the agency official was aware of the protected activity; (3) there was subsequent adverse action taken against a complainant; and (4) a causal link exists between the protected activity and the adverse treatment. See Becki P. v. U.S. Dep't of State, EEOC Appeal No. 0120152856 (March 24, 2016). As in the case of alleged discriminatory actions, an employer may "proffer a legitimate, non-retaliatory reason for the challenged actions." EEOC Enforcement Guidance on Retaliation and Related Issues, EEOC Notice 915.004, at II. As in the case of alleged discriminatory treatment or actions, an employer may "proffer a legitimate, non-retaliatory reason for the challenged actions." EEOC Enforcement Guidance on Retaliation and Related Issues, EEOC Notice 915.004, at II.

Where the agency has articulated a legitimate, nondiscriminatory reason for the action at issue, the factual inquiry can proceed directly to the third step of the McDonnell Douglas analysis, the ultimate issue of whether complainant has shown by a preponderance of the evidence that the agency's actions were motivated by discrimination based on retaliation. See U.S. Postal Service Board of Governors v. Aikens, 460 U.S. 711, 713-714 (1983); Hernandez v. Department of Transportation, EEOC Request No. 05900159 (June 28, 1990); Peterson v. Department of Health and Human Services, EEOC Request No. 05900467 (June 8, 1990); Washington v. Department of the Navy, EEOC Petition No. 03900056 (May 31, 1990).

Grounds for Summary Judgment.

Complainant alleged reprisal and disability discrimination by the Agency. As covered below, the Agency's explanation showed the absence of a causal connection between Complainant's membership in a protected category and the disputed actions.

In allegation 1, Complainant asserted that on March 2, 2018, he discovered that he had been placed in an Absent Without Leave (AWOL) status effective December 2017. Supervisor Jones confirmed that on November 27, 2017, he called Complainant and advised him that he needed to report to work on December 11, 2017, or be charged AWOL. Jones confirmed that Complainant did not return to work on December 11, 2017. Jones stated that on January 11, 2108, he informed Complainant via email that he was on AWOL status. The following day, Complainant sent Jones additional medical information, and since Jones thanked Complainant for the medical documentation, Complainant was under the impression that he was still being afforded LWOP. However, Complainant's belief was insufficient to override what Jones had explicitly told him via email. It was undisputed that by December 11, 2017, Complainant had exhausted all available leave, including FMLA-protected leave. Additionally, Jones was informed that Complainant's worker's compensation claims were denied by the Department of Labor, and, thus, Complainant was not eligible to receive LWOP under worker's compensation.

In allegation 2, Complainant alleged that Agency officials refused to respond to requests from the Department of Veterans Affairs verifying his employment for purposes of his application for disability benefits. At the time, Michael Huff was the Unit Chief (UC) for the Human Resources Division of HRD. Huff noted that on February 14, 2018, Complainant notified him by email that his VA verification had not been completed. Huff sent Complainant's VA verification form directly to UC Joseph McQueen, the head of the HRD Call Center, to assist Complainant. McQueen was not able to assist Complainant, and, he claimed referring Complainant back to Huff. After Complainant's separation, Huff advised Complainant that because he was separated from the Agency, the paperwork Complainant submitted in June 2018 for retirement disability had to be filed directly with the Office of Personnel Management. IF Ex. 12.

The last allegation concerned Complainant being presented on or about March 7, 2018, with a letter proposing his removal from the Agency's rolls. Complainant's removal proposal cited to excessive absences from the work. It was undisputed that Complainant had been off work since June 2016. There was no evidence to support that the Agency was required to continue to maintain Complainant's position open for him under these circumstances and with no indication that Complainant would be able to resume the duties of his Financial Operations Specialist position.

The parties' responses should comply with the instructions below. Since the Agency met its burden of explaining its actions, the burden shifts to Complainant to show that the Agency's actions were motivated by reprisal. In establishing pretext, complainant cannot rely on conclusory assertions and suspicions that are not supported in the record. Complainant v. Department of Defense, EEOC Appeal No. 0120131035 (April 24, 2015). Rather, complainant must proffer evidence to corroborate her contentions that the agency's reason was a pretext for reprisal. Morris v. United States Postal Service, EEOC Appeal No. 01A32685 (March 25, 2004).

Content of the Parties' Responses.

When opposing summary judgment, a party must respond with specific facts showing that there is a genuine dispute as to a material fact and that the other party is not entitled to judgment as a matter of law. Anderson, 477 U.S. at 250. Unless a party demonstrates that there is a genuine issue of material fact in dispute, no hearing will be held in this matter.

If a party opposes summary judgment, he/she may not rely on mere allegations, speculation, conclusory statements, or denials. The party should cite, to specific evidence contained in the report of investigation which creates a factual dispute regarding a material issue in the case. If not already contained in the report of investigation, the party should also include any relevant documentary evidence or witness statements, or other supporting materials and provide a clear and specific statement of their relevance. Where information is compiled from agency records, provide a declaration from the person preparing the evidence as to the method used to prepare it. If a party plans to call witnesses to testify in support of claims or defenses, the party should obtain written statements from them, and submit these statements in support of the argument against summary judgment.

Time for Responses.

Within fifteen days, the parties' responses shall be submitted by electronic mail to v.cuadra-efilebox@eoc.gov, and each side must copy the opposing party on the email. After reviewing the parties' responses and examining the record, the Administrative Judge will determine whether summary judgment is appropriate and issue a decision or an order as appropriate.

It is so ORDERED.
